1745 25 June Louisa Co Va..George Gibson, Thomas Gibson, Samuel Collins, Wm Collins, and others were in court for concealing tithables..they pled not guilty.

1747 Louisa Co VA: Thomas Collins sold 186 acres on Turkey Creek on the south side of the Southanna River to John Powell..the land lies near Gilbert Gibson, Thomas Gibson and Sam Bunch land.

1747 Louisa Co Va: Gilbert Gibson left a will naming sons Jordan, George and Gideon.

1751 Grandville Co NC [became Orange in 1753] Thomas Gibson received 640 acres on the south side of Flatt River joining John Collins on the "Rocky Branch" He later sells part of this land to Joel Gibson in 1770.

Joel Gibson was in Wilkes Co NC on the New River where he and Thomas made land entries in 1780.

1752 Grandville Co NC: Thomas Collins received a land grant on the Flatt River on Dials Creek. Witnesses were Paul Collins, George Gibson and Moses Riddle.

It is believed that Moses Riddle is the father-in-law of Thomas Collins.

Several of these men fought in the Revolutionary War, as is evidenced in pension applications and military rosters. The name of Meredith Collins is emblazoned on a DAR plaque in Pike County, Kentucky. Very little information can be found on Meredith in the state of North Carolina, but many records have surfaced in Virginia and Kentucky. In a pension application for his services, Lewis Collins stated the accounts of his military career in the abstract below.

NARS Roll 614, Collins, Lewis S21142 Hawkins Co TN 16 August 1834 [drew pension in Grainger Co TN]. Entered August 1776, drafted; Capt James Stean; Col. Williamson; marched against the Cherokees on the South Carolina frontier. " I was living in North Carolina, thinks the name of the county was Montgomery, on the waters of Broad River". In 1778, hired himself to make a crop to Charles Tompson in Montgomery County, NC: not then a man of family; drafted again. Capt. James Roan - dismissed after one month. Went to his father's house in Montgomery Co. VA - 1781, drafted. Capt. Gordan, Col. Malbury; joined General Green at the high hills of Santee; ordered to regiment of Col. Lock; took the prisoners to near Salisbury. Belongs to the Baptist Church in Hawkins Co TN. Born 1754 in Va..county not known; resides in Grainger Co TN; Rev. John Kidwell, John Coffey, William Malicoat, David McAnally Esq. Thomas Crawley, Clergyman. Dowell Collins and Edmond Collins, heirs at law, Knox Co, TN.

If, in fact, the statements made by Lewis in this application are true and correct in chronology, he is not the father of Griffin Collins, as most researchers suggest. Griffin Collins was born in 1773 as best as can be determined by census records, and Lewis has stated that he "was not then a man of family" in 1778.

There are, however, very close ties between Griffin and Lewis Collins. Griffin Collins name appears on the marriage bond for Dowell Collins to marry Mary Ennis on September 22, 1806 in Grainger County Tennessee, and Dowell was named as one of the heirs at law in the pension application of Lewis. Griffin again served as bondsman for a marriage in Grainger County on October 8, 1821 between John Collins and Lydia Toner. This John Collins is believed to be John W. Collins, son of Meredith. Griffin and Lewis are almost always listed on records in very close proximity to each other, until Lewis no longer appears on the records. He was not listed in Grainger County after 1840. In 1834, at the time of the pension application, Lewis was 80 years of age, and some of the statements made by him may indeed, be debatable.

Another statement made by Lewis in his application "went to his fathers house in Montgomery County VA in 1781", narrows down the possibilities of the father of Lewis Collins.

On the 1782 Montgomery County Virginia personal property tax list, the following names are found; Aaron Collins, Ambros Collins, Daniel Collins, David Collins, George Collins, John Collins, Lewis Collins, Martin Collins, and Melinton Collins. Each was listed as having one tithe, and several horses and cattle between them.

Also, the Militia for the New River area may help to associate these men;

David Collins, On List of Captain James McDaniel's Company, ca. 1782

Meredith Collins, Cap't James McDaniel's Company

Elisha Collins, List of Elk Creek Militia on 9/6/1782.

George Collins, On List of Captain James McDaniel's Company, ca. 1782

John Collins, On 1777 List of Cox's Militia Company and on the 1782 Elk Creek Militia List.

Lewis Collins, On List of Captain James McDaniel's

It would appear from the above records, that George, Elisha, Joshua, Lewis and David made land entries the same day, and all were 50 acres. This could possibly be land grants for military service.

In looking at the tax list for 1793 Wythe Co., VA (formed 1793 from the lower and western part of Montgomery Co; 1793 list for New River District) the following names appear; Lewis Collins , John Collins Sr., Militent Collins, Benjamin Collins, John Collins Jr., David Collins, Absolem Collins , Mahlon Collins, Johnthan Collins and Joseph Collins.

Another document regarding Lewis' military services is as follows;

Joseph Collins' affidavit in the pension application of Salethial Martin of Grainger County TN - "Was a small boy in 1780 when Capt. Martin came to the New River in Virginia and captured a group of Tories staying in a stone fort on the river. Among those captured were Lewis Collins and David Gibson who escaped later that night. I am intimately acquainted with both men and I have often heard them tell of making their escape from Capt. Martin".

It appears from this statement that Lewis Collins and David Gibson were assumed to be Tories? If this is the case, I don't believe Lewis would have been granted a pension. He was, however, granted a pension in Grainger County, Tennessee.

In the late 1700's, the Collins men had many land holdings in Wilkes and Ashe [formed from Wilkes in 1777] counties in North Carolina in the New River area. The deed books are a wealth of information in trying to determine relationships by "association". According to the deed books, the Collins men were on the New River for many years.

Elisha seemed the most prosperous in land holdings as his name was found on more than twenty deeds. It is also interesting to note that Elisha signed his deeds with a signature rather than an "X", indicating he could read and write. Where he was educated is not known to the authors at this time..

The 1771 Botetourt County Virginia tax records bear the following names; Charles Collins (1 tithe), Samuel Collins (2 tithes), John Collins (4 tithes). A tithe is a male over 16 years of age.

The 1773 delinquent tax list for Botetourt County has the following names; David Collins, Elisha Collins, Ambrose Collins, Samuel Collins, John Collins, Lewis Collins, John Collins Jr., George Collins, Charles Collins and Micajah Bunch. Nearly all had the notation "Indian Lands" after their names. They were on the New River, outside the line that marked the Western boundary of the Virginia Colony.

Montgomery County formed from Botetourt in 1777. Botetourt County formed from Fincastle in 1771. The area where these men were living was right on the North Carolina/ Virginia line. The men obviously went back and forth across the line, as they did in later years between Lee County, Virginia and Hancock County, Tennessee.

Elisha must have left this area briefly, as he was on the Grainger County Tennessee tax list for the year 1799.

DB B-1, p 120-4 March 1786, Ambrose Collins was a witness to a deed for land N side S fork New River at the mouth of Nathans Creek.

Wilkes Co NC Land Entry Book (1778-178?) These are by number and are brief descriptions of the entry. Often, the person who entered the land never obtained a grant from the State of NC for said land, but at the time it was entered they are believed to have been in the area.

#700-2 Jan 1779 Wm Lenoir entered 400 acres both sides Rocky Creek below Charles Collins' old waste cabin.

#703-2 Jan 1779 Benjamin Cleveland entered 200 acres on S side S fork New River incl. improvements that Reubin Stringer and Samuel Collins now lives.

#737-2 Jan 1779 Benjamin Herndon entered 600 acres on Dogg Creek, water of New River including two old cabins formerly belonging to George Collins*.

*George Collins, in 1809, testified in a land dispute over land in Grayson County Virginia on Peach Bottom Creek [a branch of the New River], that he had settled on the land in 1767.

(Chalkleys Chronicles of the Scotch Irish Vol. 2 p. 143)

#1012- 9 June 1779- John Livingston entered 140 acres on head waters Beaver Creek adjoining Thomas land & Thomas Collins

One More Mountain.....

An historical account of a Collins family journey, and the footsteps of their descendants....

By Frankie Blackburn

@1998 Frankie A. Blackburn. All Rights Reserved.

The following will be a compilation of the work of several researchers who, record by record, will try to piece together the history of the Collins family of Appalachia. This family cannot simply be traced to the "immigrant" ancestor, as some families can. There are many questions yet unanswered.

The names of many Collins men; Lewis, David, Thomas, Vardy, Valentine, Meredith, Elisha, Ambrose, George, Joseph, John Sr., John Jr., Joshua, George and Griffin Collins have appeared in many documents; tax lists, census records, deeds, land transactions, court cases and so on, in the states of North Carolina, Virginia and Tennessee for many years. They crossed many mountains and flatboated down many streams. The trail is not definitely marked, and has many crooks and bends, much like the mountain streams they lingered near. To find our heritage is a mountain in itself.. Yes, they have left us.. one more mountain to cross...

Researching this group of men has become a major undertaking, and has presented a most interesting challenge to many researchers and descendants. The exact relationship of these men is yet to be determined, but there is definitely some sort of relationship between them. Brothers, maybe, fathers and sons.. time and research will tell.

Vardy and his descendants have been well documented through Melungeon research. Many of the others, believed to be very close kin to Vardy, are not as well known.

Lewis, Meredith, David and Griffin are the ancestors of the authors, and what is known of these men and their descendants will be the subjects of this writing. As with any research, this will be subject to modification as new records are found, and in no way is to be considered all-inclusive.

Many years and pages of research have yielded very little. One thing is known for sure, these men left thousands of descendants throughout the Appalachian mountains, scattered among the hills and hollows..like seeds in the wind, who intertwined with other families, Bowlings, Mullins, Gibsons, Perrys, Bunches, Goins, Taylors, Farmers, Moores, Coxes, ..and became as much a part of the mountains as the rambling honeysuckle vines.

The Melungeon factor, which has received much attention as of late, will not be dealt with here. We believe other researchers, historians, anthropologists and so on, can address this subject with much more knowledge than any attempt we could make. Our Collins line, however, is indeed, an ever-changing kaleidoscope of colors on the census and other records, and no doubt, the factor is there. The designations of "fpc", "mulatto" etc, are characteristic of the Melungeons, and are written beside our family names. The pictures in our grandmothers' albums, and the lack of any "oral history" within the family bear this out; there is a difference...

The names Collins, Bowling, Gibson, Bunch and Riddle have been synonymous since the earliest records;

27 Jan 1742 Orange County, Virginia: Thursday the XXVIIth day of January MDCCXLIII "Alexander Machartoon, John Bowling, Manicassa, Capt. Tom, Isaac, Harry, Blind Tom, Foolish Jack, Charles Griffin, John Collins, Little Jack. Indians being brought before the court by precept under the hands and seals of Wm Russell & Edward Spencer, Gent. for terrifying one Lawrence Strother and on suspicion of stealing hoggs........" The above put up security individually. It was ordered that

Indianapolis, IN 46260

Dear Mrs. Porter,

I have been corresponding with Carol Stoultz on my Elkins line and because she is in Hendricks Co, IN asked her to check on my Archibald Gipson, and lo and behold she told me about the work she did for you some time back.

I come from Archibald's son Martin Gipson who died in Perry Co, KY around 1830. I have been scraping together this family for so long and only recently learned about the Indiana connection.

My Martin's widow and children move to Tazewell Co, VA before 1840. My direct line remains in that area until the present day. Some of Martin's children and grandchildren go into West Virginia and others disappear completely.

I have a copy of the family group sheet created in 1990 of Archibald, by you or Carol. I think that several of those children are actually grandchildren. Have you made changes to that information? I am enclosing the first 2 pages of my Archibald report…Let me know if we can exchange other information.

Thank you,

Debbie Sue DeHart

RE no proof that any of Archibald's children moved BACK to VA:

I have much information that proves this. I am sorry that you think that because you didn't find this, it didn't happen.

I have lots of PA and VA Gibson information, I know that Archibald doesn't belong there. Actually I have Gibson ancestry to those other VA lines, so I am quite familiar with other Gibson families. They are lines of separate origin.

Archibald was very active as you know and was a constable in Perry Co, KY. I am in the process of reading the circuit court records for Floyd Co, KY and continue to collect even the smallest scraps of information on this family. Someday perhaps we will have a truer picture of Archibald the progenitor.

Thanks for writing,

Debbie DeHart

Dear Mrs.Porter,
I will try in this e-mail to clear up a couple problems you have with my research.

RE Below 1794 Ashe Co, NC:
Ashe County NC did not exist until 1799, so he is not in Ashe in 1794. He is found in Company 10, Morgan District Wilkes County, NC in 1790, which becomes Ashe in 1799.. Yes indeed he does go to Madison Co, KY with his father-in-law Leven Cole and brother Ezekial. He is found there in 1795. Madison Co, KY became Clay Co, KY not Floyd Co, KY where Archibald is found after 1808. In 1796 Archibald and brother Ezekial are gone from Madison Tax list and you will find them back on the Wilkes Tax list in 1797 with 1 poll and 100 acres of land (this agrees with the following). Also I have deeds where Archibald is entering land there in Ashe Co, September 4th 1800. This land is along Cranberry Creek in Ashe on the VA border. He is on the 1800 Ashe County Census with brother Ezekial. Nearby are Joel and Zachariah, as well as Thomas who may be Archibald's father.

RE Carol says you had some thought that these Gibsons were black:

That is not what I communicated! They are on the Ashe County 1800 Census listed as free black...That classification was used for many dark skinned people. I don't think they are Negro. I happen to think they are Catawba Indian. I suggest that you may want to look at the Ashe County 1800 Census yourself.

RE Various records in Floyd Co place Archibald and Vashti in Floyd Co until 1830:

Floyd Co, KY records date from 1808...before 1800 it didn't exist. So where are Archibald, Ezekial and families...I and other researchers I have worked with, have been unable to locate them in Madison, Mason or other early Kentucky Counties. I would like to look at any records mentioning them. Actually Archibald leaves for Hendricks Co, IN in 1829, I have all of his Kentucky deeds. His son John has moved ahead of Archibald to Hendricks Co, IN as his residence is noted in the deeds before Archibald.

OTHER MARRIAGES

1-Mariah -- (RN=6418)

Archibald Gibson -

Birthplace - Probably born in PITTSYLVANIA CO. VA. (When the census taker asked where he was born in 1850, he probably gave the County name, and the Censustaker took him to mean PA. Pittsylvania Co. was formed in 1766. This suggestion made by another descendant of Archibald's who worked for the census bureau, and had considerable knowledge of the kind of mistakes which were often made in census taking. This makes alot more sense because Pittsy. Co. VA is located on the state line between VA and NC and just a little east of Wilkes/Ashe Cos.NC. Also some of living children said parents b. VA in 1880 census.

Birthdate - b. 1860 (gravestone says 95 yrs. in 1855)
b. aft. 1866 (when Pittsy.Co.VA formed from old Lunenburg Co.VA)
b. by 1769 - Tax lists in Wilkes Co.NC -Ray's Dist. Also in 1790 cns.
b. between 1855 and 1774 (26-45 in 1810 Floyd Co.KY cns)
b. by 1775 (over 45 in 1820 Floyd Co.KY cns.)
b. 1770-1780 (50-60 in 1830 Floyd Co.,KY cns.)
b. 1760-1770 (70-80 in 1840 Hendricks Co.IN cns.)
b. 1758 (92 in 1850 IN cns.)

Veshta Cole Gibson - believe she also born in Pittsy.Co.VA
b. 1762 (93 yrs.old at death in 1855)
b. 1784-1794 (16-26 yrs. in 1810)
b. by 1775 (over 45 in 1820)
b. 1770-1780 (50-60 in 1830)
b. 1760-1770 (60-70 in 1830)
b. 1758 (92 in 1850)
b. 1778-1780 (if 15-17 yrs. when had first child in 1793)
b. c.1771 (if near forty when had last child in 1811)

My best guess -
Archibald b. c.1769-1770 in Pittsylvania Co.VA
Veshta b. c.1775 in Pittsylvania Co.VA
m. c.1791 in Wilkes/Ashe Co. NC (they lived in a part of Wilkes Co. which later became Ashe Co.)

Arch. and Veshta moved from NC to Floyd Co. KY c.1793-94. (First child born in NC and all the rest born in KY 1794 and after.)

Moved to Hendricks Co. IN c. 1829 - appear in 1830 census there.

Marian,

I was so glad that Jules passed my name and e-mail address on to you. It's a pleasure to meet you. Isn't Jules a character? I met him through another descendent of Archibald Gibson, Sr., Debbie DeHart. My father-in-law is Sam Gibson. Sam and my wife Lori are descended from Archibald Gibson, Sr. as follows:

Archibald Gibson, Sr.
  Archibald Gibson, Jr. - Came to Texas from Indiana.
    John Lee W. D. Gibson
      Bruce Lee Gibson
        William Lee Gibson
          Samuel Lee Gibson
            Lori Gail (Gibson) Clyde

Archibald Gibson, Jr. was an amazing man. He followed his brother James Gibson (Gipson) down from Indiana to Texas around 1836 or so. He joined the Texas army, fought in the militia, rode with the Texas Rangers, fought with the McCulloch brothers, Henry and Ben against the Commanches at Plum Creek, with "Old Paint" Caldwell and Captain John "Coffee" Hays against Mexican General Woll during the Mexican invasion, and again with Ben McCulloch and John Hays in the Mexican War. He was wounded many times and well known for his bravery and skills. His brother James often fought in the same units and skirmishes as Arch. Jules is descended from James.

Ar junior's son, John Lee fought in the most famous cavalry unit in the War Between The States. He was with Terry's Texas R ers from the start to the finish. He walked over a mountain to return to his unit, once seperated. He was reported dead, but returned.

Very interesting family. You can read about it on the new Gibson/Gipson Famly History & Genealogy Web site that I just created. I am hoping to recruite other Gibson researchers to help build it up to be THE reference site for the descendents and ancesters of Archibald Gibson.

I have lots to share and I could really use your help fleshing out your side of the family. Feel free to call and chat or drop me an email.

Hi! I'm Marian Porter. I am descended from Archibald Gibson through his son Ezekiel . Archibald and Vashti are buried in Jamestown, IN. I have pictures of their gravestones and much information concerning their descendants. Jules Gipson called me tonight. I have been in touch with him in years past;but haven't heard from him recently. Was so glad to find out he is still alive.

Don't know whether I can add anything to your research--but wanted to let you know of my existence. I spend 8 mos. a

    (Rachel named by Pierre Haynes in family records; I found her in Hndrks.Co marriage records and census)

11. Elizabeth Gibson
    b. 1810-1811 TE (she said in 1850 census)
    m. c. 1831 Joseph Gibson IN (He b. between 1790 and 1800, d. ?) (Was related somehow.)
    d. c. 1895
    (She was known as "Big Toe Bet" according to my uncle's records. It was also said that she was so large that a special chair was built for her to use; and that she had to turn sideways to go through a door. Archibald and Vashti were living with her in 1850.)

Sources of Information and Other Notes: Family records compiled in the 1920's by my uncle Pierre E. Haynes (PEH) (b. 1885; d. 1950.) Some of the Gibson/ Gipson information came to him from other family members, quoting Samuel Preston Gipson, Archibald's grandson, who said that Vashti was of "French descent."

Also all the usual public records--VA; NC, KY, IN census, tax records, deeds, court records, histories, etc.

The ages of Archibald and Vashti in the census and on their gravestone are inconsistent. I finally averaged out the possibilities!

The list of their children came from PEH and has been more or less confirmed by other descendants of theirs. Archibald owned land on Cranberry Creek, Wilkes (Ashe) Co. NC--50 acres 1793. In Wilkes/Ashe Co. NC census 1790 and 1800; being classified as free persons of color in 1800. In Floyd Co. KY census 1810, 1820; Hendricks Co. IN census 1830, 1840, 1850. PEH also named Absolom, Jordon and Joel as sons of Archibald and Vashti--but I found no evidence--even circumstantial--that they belonged in this family.

An Ezekiel Gibson who married Rachel — appears to have been a brother of Archibald's. He died Floyd Co. KY before 1842, leaving heirs named in a couple of land records. He appeared in the census: Wilkes/Ashe Co. NC 1790 and 1800 (also as free persons of color) and in Floyd Co. KY 1820.

A descendant of a Martin Gibson, who is related somehow, says that Archibald and Vashti lived for a time in Madison Co. KY with Ezekiel and Vashti's father Levin Cole c. 1797-1810. It appears that there was some traveling back and forth between KY and NC between c. 1797 and c.1820. My uncle said that John Gibson, Archibald's son, met his wife Elizabeth (Betsy) Hopper during one trip across the mountains. Elizabeth made the trip barefoot!

Martin Gibson died before 1840 in Perry Co. KY and his widow moved back to her family in Tazewell Co. VA.

Sources and Other Notes: Family Records of Pierre E. Haynes, grandson of Samuel Gipson; Hendricks Co., Clinton Co. IN census - 1830, 1840, 1850, 1880; Boone Co. marriage records; Hendricks, Boone and Clinton Co. IN land records.

Ezekiel's estate was not settled until 1851. Peter B. Kennedy was appointed guardian of the three youngest children Clinton Co. IN 11 May 1846.

Lucinda Jane (Jenny) Johnson was "the daughter of Andrew Johnson" in the Floyd Co. KY marriage records. I was unable to determine which of two Andrew Johnsons was her father. After Ezekiel's death, Lucinda had two more children who went by the surname Gibson, although obviously not the children of Ezekiel:
(1) Louisa Catherine Gibson, b. 22 Jan 1839, Clinton Co. IN - m. Moses Breese, d. 16 Aug 1912 in Kentland, IN
(2) George Washington Gibson, b. 26 Sep 1942, Clinton Co. IN - m. 1st Mary Elizabeth Ferguson; m. 2nd Mary C. Wills

He d. 3 Jan 1885, is buried in Kirklin, IN.

To quote PEH - "We obtain the impression that George W. was an illegitimate child of Lucinda and possibly an Indian. There is a story that in after years certain Indians came to claim George W. and induce him to leave and go west. Samuel Preston gave him a farm to keep him at Clinton Co." (I found no evidence of this in land records.)

Lucinda finally m. 2nd Andrew J. Wells 6 Oct 1844; and is ten years younger in the 1850 census! Andrew was the younger brother of Hiram Wells who was the husband of Lucinda's daughter Nancy!

Allen Gibson bought land from Nancy (Gibson) and Hiram Wells 21 Dec 1843, which represented Nancy's share of Ezekiel's estate. In June 1845 Allen and brother Samuel Preston were driving a yoke of oxen hauling logs for Nathan Kirk (for whom Kirklin was named) when a dog frightened the team, and Allen was killed by falling logs.

Sources and notes: Pierre Haynes' family records and additional information from descendants. I remember most of the above people, and many of their offspring. I seem to recall hearing that the family name was changed to Gipson when it was mis-spelled in a deed. The family went along with the new spelling because they were afraid they would lose the land otherwise. It appears the name has always spelled both ways in all the records anyway.

Eva L. Gipson Haynes was the mother of Pierre E. Haynes, compiler of so many of our family records.

YOUNG

LEVEN COLE 1745 - 1816

Leven was probably partially of English decent. He probably descended in some manner from the COLES of southeastern England. I believe, he was probably well educated based on the names of some of his children, mainly Plato, Vespasian, and Vashti. I have researched this family for 7-8 years and have never found the names Leven, Plato or Vespasian in any other COLE family except this one. The name Vashti does, however, appear in the Elisha COLE line from England. Leven was quite possibly a Melungeon. Melungeons were a mixture of Spanish and Portuguese, Turks, Berbers of Africa and American Indian. They had English surnames and often claimed to be Portuguese. There was nothing to document their claim, however. They did not seem to have any written history and are very difficult to trace. Wilkes County, North Carolina, Madison County, Kentucky and Grayson County, Virginia were some of the areas Melungeons lived in large numbers. Leven is known to have lived in Wilkes County, North Carolina and Madison County, Kentucky. He was associated with ADAMS and GIBSON families, both known to be Melungeon surnames.

Leven appears on the North Carolina State Census of 1784-1787 living in Wilkes County. He is also shown on the 1787 Wilkes County, North Carolina Tax List. The 1790 Federal Census enumerated a Lenvil COLE in the same county and state. I feel certain that Lenvil is a misspelling of Leven. In 1780 Leven COLE was appointed Justice of the Morgan District, Wilkes County, NC. Leven purchased land at Nathan's Creek in Wilkes County, NC in 1786 and sold the same property in 1790. On October 27, 1787 he was granted permission to build a public grist mill on the property at Nathan's Creek.

Leven appears on the 1794 Tax List of Madison County, Kentucky and on January 1, 1799 he purchased land at Silver Creek in Madison County. He sold this same property on August 6, 1804.

He purchased land in St. Andrew, Bonhomme Township, St. Louis County, Missouri on March 8, 1805. He lived on this land until his death in 1816. Leven died without a will. William COLE, Leven's eldest son was appointed administrator of his estate.

Leven's place of birth is unknown. His birth date is based on several things. Leven had two daughters by his first wife, whose name is unknown. The ages of both of these girls are uncertain. There are many individuals researching this family and their descendants, therefore there are a lot of different theories.

Vashti COLE, daughter of Leven and his first wife, I believe was born about 1773. I estimate Vashti's birth date based on the following:

Vashti married Archibald GIBSON (no documentation of the marriage has been found) and had her first child about 1793 and her last child in 1811. If she was born in 1773, she would be about 20 when giving birth to thir first child and 38 when her last child is born.

Vashti picks up 12 years on census records between 1820 and 1850. I believe it is unlikely she lived to be 93 as stated on her tombstone. Vashti died in 1855. Also the Hendricks County, Indiana 1850 census Indicates she was 92 years of age. If this were true, she would have been 31 when she had her first child and 49 when the last child was born. I belived she was born closer to 1773. I have no documented proof of her age.

Nancy Agnes COLE, daughter of Leven and his first wife, I believe was born about 1775. Some researchers have her birth date as early as 1760. My theory is based on the following.

Nancy married George EOFF March 6, 1793. She had her first child in 1794 and her last child in 1819. If Nancy was born in 1760, she would have been 33 when she married and 59 when she gave birth to her last child. This is highly unlikely. My theory is she was born about 1775, putting her age about 18 when she married and 44 when her last child was born. I found no documented proof of her age.

Leven married first: Unknown

Children of Leven COLE and first wife:

1. Vashti COLE born ca 1773 possibly in Pittsylvania County, VA
2. Nancy Agnes COLE born ca 1775, possibly in Wilkes County, NC

It is unknown if other children were born to Leven and his first wife.

Married second: Sarah FRANCIS on November 10, 1783 in Wilkes County, NC. Sarah FRANCIS is probably the daughter of Matthew FRANCIS of Wilkes County, NC.

Children of Leven COLE and Sarah FRANCIS:

3. William COLE born ca 1785 in Wilkes County, NC
4. Mathew COLE born ca 1791 in Wilkes County, NC
5. Vespasian COLE born ca 1795-1800 in Madison County, KY
6. Mary E. COLE born ca 1795 in Madison County, KY
7. Martha (Patsy) COLE born ca 1800 in Madison County, KY
8. Plato COLE born ca 1802 in Madison County, KY
9. Elizabeth COLE birth date unknown, possibly in St. Louis County, MO
10. John COLE, birth date unknown, possibly in St. Louis County, MO

Leven COLE fathered a female child by Jane ADAMS in Wilkes County, NC while married to Sarah FRANCIS. Leven posted a "Bastardy Bond" in 1784 in Wilkes County, NC to insure the child would not become a ward of the state.

End Notes

Sources:: Mostly data from PEH (especially specific dates), some confirmed and expanded by census; land records; letters, charts, research by Grace Roeburg and Olive Olcott, supplied to me by Pat Fleeson, daughter of Grace. Pat also sent a copy of the Lawrenceburg Press March 1888 with eulogy to John Douglas Haynes.

Henry Haynes: PEH described Henry as "blue-eyed, rotund and loveable." The 1850 and 1860 census confirm that he was born in 1783. Henry and Abigail first appear in the census in Moreau, Saratoga Co. NY in the 1820 census. They moved west about 1833 with a group of 100 families, settling first in Millville, Butler Co. OH. In 1835, they moved to Union Co., IN where most of their married children settled. Manchester was described by a relative as "more name than city." It was located on the highway between Cincinnati and Indianapolis and is non-existent today.

In 1835 Henry purchased 80 acres of land from the Crawfordsville, IN land office. The land was located in what is now Boone Co. although it was unorganized government land at the time. It looks as though Eldridge and Maria Belle may have settled on this land much later.

Henry and Abigail were buried in old Methodist Evangelical burial ground near Pleasant View.

According to PEH, Henry's father was probably Barney Haynes, a Tory who fled to Canada at the time of the Mohawk Indian raids about 1780. PEH reported in his notes that French Canadian records show a "Bernard Ains" married Elizabeth Frey. They returned to New York about 1782 when Henry was born. Shortly after Henry's birth, Barney died; and Elizabeth left infant Henry with relatives named Houghteling and returned to Canada. The Houghtelings raised Henry.

This sounds like family oral tradition. In the areas where the Eldridge family apparently located (Duchess and Ulster Cos. NY), there were also a number Houghteling and Haynes families (spellings varied) with such sketchy information that I saw no clear way to sort them out, or to confirm any of the information about Henry's parents..

For a summary of PEH's research of early Haynes and Frey families, see the end of these notes.

(Joseph GIBSON was probably a cousin to Elizabeth)

2. Nancy Agnes COLE:

Born ca 1775 possibly in Wilkes County, NC
Died ca 1840 in Pike County, MO
Married George EOFF in Madison County, KY on March 6, 1793.

George EOFF was born ca 1760, died ca 1847 in Pike County, MO George was the son of Peter EOFF and Elizabeth, unknown surname.

George married first Jane CRAIG on December 6, 1788.

Children of George EOFF and Jane CRAIG:
I. Mary EOFF (1789 - 1866) Born in Chester County, SC.
Married John BALL ca 1804 in St. Louis County, MO
(Ballwin, Missouri was later named after John BALL)
II. Alexander EOFF (1792 - 1869) Born in Chester County, SC
Married Isabella RICHARDSON March 2, 1815 in Franklin County, MO

Children of Nancy Agnes COLE and George EOFF:
III. Margaret EOFF (1794 -) Born in Madison County, KY
Married John J. BROWN, date and place unknown.
IV. Isaac EOFF (1795 - ca 1850) Born in Madison County, KY
Married Martha MOORE ca 1816 in St. Louis County, MO
V. Barshebather (Barsheba) EOFF (1797 -) Born in Kentucky
(It is believed by some, she married William COLE, her mothers half brother, but not proven)

Mary Haynes Jordan: Data on this family was supplied not only from PEH and Grace Roeburg, but also from a letter written by Olive Olcott (b.1866; d. after 1940) Olive was the wife of Charles William Olcott, a grandson of Mary and William. Mary and William were buried at Wright's Corner, which was located on the road between Lawrenceburg and Aurora, IN. William was a merchant in Manchester.

John Douglas Haynes: Information on this line was from PEH, Grace Roeburg (a grand daughter of John Douglas) and her daughter Pat Fleeson, with whom I corresponded for a time. Their material included letters, research notes, charts and a full-page eulogy to John D. Haynes which appeared at the time of his death in the Lawrenceburg Press.

John Douglas was a lawyer. His wife's father was the leader of a group of 100 families who moved together from Saratoga Co. NY to OH and IN.

Catherine Haynes Collins: Catherine apparently stayed in NY when the rest of the family came to IN. Her husband was a Methodist minister. They are buried at Shrub Oaks ME Church in Westchester, NY.

Eldridge Clark Haynes (#4): See previous section.

John Henry Haynes: PEH said John Henry went to PA about 1851 where he "lumbered around" North Bend, PA and eventually owned a lot of land.

Sarah Haynes Bartram: PEH said Sarah lived from 1838-1847 in the home of her sister Elizabeth and Elizabeth's husband Rev. Charles Isham. In 1847 she married Levi Bartram in Newburgh, NY. The marriage was performed by Rev. Isham. Sarah and Levi are buried in Danbury, CT.

Elizabeth Caroline Haynes Isham: Elizabeth and Charles Isham lived in NY. Elizabeth died in Ulster Co. NY and is buried in Danbury, CT. Rev. Isham remarried and eventually became a bishop in the Methodist Church and moved to Trenton, MO.

Harriet Ann Haynes Conger: Harriet Ann is buried at Hogan Hill in Dearborn Co. IN.

Myron Haynes: Myron was Auditor of Dearborn Co. IN 1875-1879.

Hezron Haynes: Hezron's wife Elvira was originally engaged to Hezron's nephew Hermon Haynes, son of Eldridge and Maria Bell Haynes. Hermon died of tuberculosis contracted while serving as company fifer during the Civil War. Both Hezron and Elvira are buried in Holman, IN.

Miscellaneous Early Haynes' in NY: from PEH records. There is no proof that our Henry Haynes was related to any of the following early Hayneses. : Haynes was variously spelled Haines, Heens, Hainze, etc. (I think this information is worth passing on. There are pieces of it that hang together!)

1. Henri Hainze: b. 29 Apr 1683, Brussels, Belgium; m. Gretchen Heidelberg 27 Jan 1704; and had son Hendrick, possibly one of eleven children. PEH believed Gretchen may have been born in Zurich, Switzerland.

2. Henry Haynes m. Charlotte LeDezma, b. 20 Nov 1732, Ghent, Belgium.

3. Hendrick Heens of New Dorloo, NY 1753, married 2nd Elizabeth Rickard of Schenectady. She was deceased by 10 Mar 1760. Her first husband was Marcus Rickard, by whom she had a son John. Hendrick Heens owned a mill which was still standing in the 1920's when PEH saw it and took a picture of it, according to Olive Patterson's letter.

4. Henry Haynes lived in Montgomery Co. NY 1790 (census); married with children.

5. Henry Haynes located in NY had a brother Barney who went to Canada. I think this is the best clue we have to the identity of Barney "Ains". It is my impression that PEH thought it possible that this Henry and his brother Barney were son of Henry Haynes (#4) -- or Hendrick Heens (#3)..

Frey (also Frye, Fret) from PEH records

-Elizabeth Frey, b. Canada; m. c. 1780 Bernard Ains.

V

-Phillip Rockel Frey m. Mary L. St. Martin: had Elizabeth, Henry (who married 1789 Elizabeth Howe and had 8 children, including a son Samuel C. Frey), Mary Ann, b. at Canojoharie, NY; Catherine, also born Canajoharie. Phillip Rockel Frey came to NY with his uncle Barent Frey. (See below.)

    Married Elizabeth DENT July 17, 1842 in Pike County, MO

There are numerous individuals researching the EOFF family. Please see the EOFF Genforum for queries and responses. I have found the EOFF researchers are always willing to help.

3. William COLE

Born ca 1785 in Wilkes County, North Carolina
Died ca 1859 in Franklin County, Missouri
Married first Barsheba (surname unknown), before 1820 probably in Missouri
Married second Elizabeth OWEN 1849 in Franklin County, MO

Children of William COLE and Barsheba:

I. Thomas Matthew COLE (ca 1821 -) Franklin County, MO
    Married Martha Ann COLE January 21, 1844 in Franklin County, MO
II. Sarilda COLE (1825 -) Franklin County, MO
    Married Josiah SEAL date and place unknown
III. James COLE (1827 - 1893) Franklin County, MO
    Married Mary L. McBRIDE October 27, 1857 in Franklin County, MO
IV. Jane COLE (ca 1831 -) Franklin County, MO
V. William A. COLE (1834 - 1899) Jefferson County, MO
    Married first Mary Frances BAY December 23 1858 in Jefferson County, MO
    Married second Martha Ann WHITWORTH Nov. 4, 1866 in Jefferson Co., MO
VI. Eleven COLE (1841 - 1901) Missouri
    Married Nancy Louisa CUNNINGHAM date and place unknown
VII. Elvira COLE (ca 1842 -) Franklin County, MO
VIII. Sarah COLE (ca 1842 -) Franklin County, MO
    Married Thomas SEAL May 8, 1864 in Franklin County, MO

There is a lot of controversy over two of the children of William COLE and Barsheba.

Thomas Matthew COLE, some believe to be the son of Matthew COLE, the brother of William COLE. I believe, due to land records, that Thomas Matthew COLE is the son of William and Barsheba.

Martha Ann COLE, spouse of Thomas Matthew is probably a cousin, but I do not know her parentage. She could be one of the unaccounted for children of Vespasian COLE.

Elvira COLE born 1842, was listed on only one census record, the same census record did not list Eleven COLE. It is assumed that Elvira is actually Eleven COLE who was born in 1841 but not proven.

Barsheba, wife of William, is possibly the daughter of William's half sister, Nancy Agnes COLE and George EOFF. Barsheba is an unusual name and not found anywhere else in this family except William's wife and Nancy 's daughter.

4. Mathew COLE

Born ca 1791 in Wilkes County, NC

Gibsons in VA and NC

11-24-90 Mtch-up

General Conclusions: - on circumstantial evidence - dates, locations, groups of given names.

A. The Bedford Co.VA Gibsons are probably the forebears of Archibald Gibson of Floyd Co.KY and Hendricks Co.IN.
B. This group of Gibsons moved into the Bedford Co. area (then Lunenburg Co.) c. 1746.
C. Some of the Bedford Co. Gibsons moved on to the Henry Co, VA area c. 1762. (Then Pittsylvania Co.VA)
D. Some of the Henry Co. Gibsons moved across the state line into NC, many to Ashe Co. area (then Wilkes Co.NC) by c.1787
E. Two or three Henry Co./NC Gibsons may have commuted between Henry Co. and Caswell Co. 1780-1795.

F. The Gibsons of Patrick, Henry, Pittsylvania and Halifax Cos. all served by Dann River and tributaries. Dann River flows south from Patrick Co.VA, into and across northern tier of NC counties--north again into Pittsy. and Halifax Cos. joining the Roanoke River on the eastern Halifax Co. line.

G. The Bedford/Henry/Wilkes Cos. group has been characterized by the names Randolph, Thomas, James, Joel, Archebald, George, Andrew, etc. No Valentine. John not commonly used.

H. The Gibsons of Halifax Co.VA are clearly the same as the Gibsons of Stokes Co.NC. They can be characterized by the names Jonathan, John, James, Archilus and Valentine. [--no Randol or Randolph.]

I. Some of the county records overlap due to changing boundries.
J. From data studied to date, it is impossible to be certain of anything: birth and death dates; relationships.

K. There is only one Joel Gibson; only one Randol Gibson and one Randolph Gibson in the old Lunenburg area c. 1746-1790.

L. There are 3-4 Archebalds, (Archelus, Archbill, etc.)
   (1) Archibald (Archiblad) dec. by 1764, leaving heirs; named in LWT of James, Bedford Co. 1764
   (2) Archibald, at least 21 yrs. old by 1779 in Henry Co. tax list
   (3) Archelus, over 16 in 1790 census in Stokes Co. NC census
   (4) Archibald in Wilkes Co. NC 1790; Floyd Co.KY 1810--d. Hendricks Co.IN 1850
      (1850 cns. suggests this Arch.b. Pittsy.Co.VA--which was not formed until 1766.)

M. There may be as many as 4-7 Thos. Gibsons
   (1) Thos. dec. in 1780, whose will Joel exhibited..survived by wife and dau. only.
   (2) Thos."Jr" on 1779 Henry Co.VA tax list--not son of Thos. above
   (2a) Thos. of Wilkes/Ashe Cos.NC - possibly the same Thos.
   (3) Thos. who was ill for 8 mos. with John in Halifax Co.VA 1757. (not clear if died as result of illness)
   (4) Thos. named brother of William dec. 1791 Bedford Co. Thos. was exctr. Wm.'s estate.
   (5) Thos. in Halifax Co. 1757
   (6) Thos. the physician, in Pittsy Co. years surrounding 1784

N. There may be more than 6-7 James
   (1) James, d. 1764 in Bedford Co. naming sons James, Randol, Joseph, Archebald (dec.) and John (dec)--both dec. sons leaving heirs.
   (2) James (II) son of James, d.1764 Bedford Co. who may also be....
   (2a) James in Caswell Co.NC 1777, prob. d. 1778-80 in either NC or VA.
   (3) James (III) in Caswell Co.NC 1777 and 1786 with Joel
   (4) James in Halifax Co. VA and Stokes Co.,NC
   (5) James in Henry Co.VA 1786-95

O. There could be at least 9 Johns
   (1) John dec. by 1764, leaving heirs; son of James, d. 1764 in Bedford Co.VA
   (2) John, son of William, Bedford Co. 1791, named in Wm.'s LWT
   (3) John of Halifax Co.1757; ill for 8 mos. with Thos. Not clear if he died or not.
   (4) John in Caswell Co.NC with Joel in 1777
   (4a) - Two Johns in Wilkes Co.NC 1793 tax list, but not in district with Joel and others.
   (4b) John of Henry Co. m. Hanner Fitzgerrill Dec.8, 1788
   (5) Three Johns in the Stokes Co.,NC census 1790
   (6) Misc. John in Bedford Co. with a daughter Juda .

This is all a small part of my effort to piece together scraps ?, Gibson data MOSt.

SOURCES

Research and family records of my uncle Pierre E. Haynes. (1865-1951) He was a scientist and national authority on rare gases in the 1920's to 1940's.

My own research with the help of genealogical researchers (CGRS), certified genealogists (CG): public records in PA, VA, NC, KY and IN such as censuses, tax lists, deeds, wills, court records, military records, marriage bonds, histories, genealogies, etc. This includes an analysis by Mrs. Mildred J. Miller, CG, of Wilkes Co.NC.

Research and family records of Jules Gipson of Johnson City, TX, a descendant of Archibald's by his son James.

Research and family records of D. Fred Reed of Lexington, KY, a descendant of Ezekiel Gibson, probably brother of Archibald. This includes a portion of a graduate student's thesis which Fred found in the University of KY library, regarding the Melungeon community of eastern TE.

PROVEN FACTS

1. Gibson/Gipson was spelled both ways.

2. Archebald was living in Wilkes/Ashe Co. NC 1790-93. (The part of Wilkes Co. where the Gibsons lived became Ashe Co. in 1799) (Censuses, public records)

3. He married Vashti Cole, dau. of Levin Cole, who was living in Wilkes/Ashe Co. 1787-1791. (Levin Cole's LWT)

4. They were living in KY 1793-1829. (Their first child born in NC 1793; second child born in KY 1794) Arch and Vash. are in Floyd Co.KY records 1810-1824. Their son John Gibson bought land in IN 28 Oct 1828, and they are listed in Hendricks Co.IN 1830 census.

5. They were living in Jamestown (Hendricks Co.) IN from 1829-1855, when they both died.

6. They had at least ~~eleven~~ nine children.

7. They were listed in the 1850 census as "illiterate." The ages given in the censuses 1810-1850 are not at all consistent. In 1850, their places of birth are recorded as "PA" (Pennsylvania) which does not appear to be correct.

ESTIMATING ARCHIBALD'S BIRTHDATE: based on the following, let's say--he was born 1769

b. 1860	(gravestone says 95 yrs. in 1855)
b. aft. 1866	(when Pittsy.Co.VA formed from old Lunenburg Co.VA)
b. by 1769	Tax lists in Wilkes Co.NC -Ray's Dist. Also in 1790 cns.
b. 1755 - 1774	(26-45 in 1810 Floyd Co.KY cns)
b. by 1775	(over 45 in 1820 Floyd Co.KY cns.)
b. 1770-1780	(50-60 in 1830 Floyd Co.,KY cns.)
b. 1760-1770	(70-80 in 1840 Hendricks Co.IN cns.)
b. 1758	(92 in 1850 IN cns.)

VASHTI (VESHTA) COLE GIBSON'S BIRTHDATE: based on the following, let's say-- she was b. by 1775.

b. 1762	(93 yrs.old at death in 1855)
b. 1784-1794	(16-26 yrs. in 1810)

Notes: Bedford Co.VA was formed from Lunenburg Co. 1753.

Henry Co.VA was originally Lunenburg Co.. ~~That~~ The same area became part of Halifax Co.1752. ~~The area became~~ one part of Pittsylvania Co. 1766. Was finally Henry Co. 1776.

Wilkes/Ashe Co.NC: the part of Wilkes Co. where the Gibsons lived became Ashe Co. in 1799.

*Archibald's son William married Nancy Justice; Ezekiel's ~~son~~ dau married Leonard Terry.
Archibald married Vashti Cole, dau. of Levin.

Excerpts from letter of Mildred J. Miller, CG of Wilkes Co.NC (1 Mar 1991): "...It appears to me that these Gibsons originated in the part of Pittsylvania County, VA that became Henry County in 1776. As you say, there is no proof, but the circumstantial evidence points to this conclusion..

"It looks like Ezekiel and Zacharaiah who were in Ashe County, then Floyd Co.Kentucky were Archibald's brothers...Thomas may also be a brother...Joel...another candidate...as well as William..."

Excerpts from Graduate Student's Thesis on Melungeons: University of Kentucky Library, pp.46-48: "...the Department of Interior was compiling a special report, Indians Taxed and Not Taxed (1894), drawn from the 1890 census....The people of Vardy were included...as presumed Melungeons...described as remnants of the Eastern Cherokee....claim to be Cherokee of mixed blood ...the Indian blood is traced to two Cerokee Indians known as Collins and Gibson, who reported settled in the mountains of East Tennessee in approximately 1796....The Portuguese stock is said to derive from a man named Denham...supposedly a sailor put ashore on the coast of North Carolina for being troublesome to the captain of a private vessel...married a Collins woman.

...Vardiman Collins and Shephard Gibson...were among the earliest settlers in the Newman's Ridge area. From North Carolina, Vardiman or Vardy Collins was probably a half-breed Indian...who married Margaret (Peggy) Gibson from Virginia. Known as "Spanish Peggy," she was, in some uncertain degree, of Spanish origin. She was a sister to Shepard Gibson, who accompanied Vardy Collins...

...Vardiman was the son of Navarrh H. (Henry) Collins...born in Virginia approximately 1699...Henry, in turn was the son of Henry Collins, an indentured servant of Thomas Wood. "Spanish Peggy" was the daughter of John Gibson of Currituck County, North Carolina. John, in turn, was the son of Henry Gibson, also of Currituck County who appears on a 1715 tax list for the county...the Gibsons were supposed to have been engaged in piracy off the Atlantic coast."

Note that "Spanish Peggy" and presumably her brother Shepard Gibson were originally from VA.

Note from MSP

[I am not surprised at the possibility that the Gibsons were part Indian! As I was growing up, I heard many allusions our Indian blood. My uncle Park Haynes (Pierre's brother) had some Indian characteristics--black straight hair, black

In another letter Jules Gibson said that his family always understood that Archibald came from Virginia

January 18, 1990

Dear Marian:

Thanks for your prompt letter. It is most enjoyable to always be learning new data about the familys' past history after so many years of butting my head against the wall because of blind paths I would follow due to lack of knowledge. None of my line has ever made any attempt to write anything down and much of what I have learned has been the direct result of folling clues handed down to me in oral history by my grandfather John Ray Gipson.

To business.

I am not and have never been sure of where James Gipson, son of Archibald was born. On the 1850 census it shows Virginia as the place of birth for both James and Sally. However the 1880 census for all of his children, that I have located, shows the children in agreement that he and Sally were born in Kentucky. One child did list VA as the place of parents birth but everyone else listed Kentucky. Based only on this, I figured he was probably born in eastern Kentucky but I don't know. On the 1880 census Archibald Jr. listed his place of birth as Kentucky and Arch was born in the 1799-1801 era. I think and I feel I am in agreement with you on this that James was probably born around or in 1794. I have a ship manifest where James landed on the Texas coast in 1839 with a family of 9, coming out of New Orleans, and on this James listed his age as 45. I think this was when James finally brought his family down from the midwest but perhaps they just went to New Orleans on business or something. At any rate age 45 would be consistant with a 1794 year of birth. Unfortunately, I do not have any oral history to place the location of James birth since Grandpa John always just used the term of "back East" to describe where they came from.

I have no problem with the chronology of the births of James children which you have listed. The only dates I am sure of is that for James Jr. and the girl Bathsheba. These specific dates I am fairly sure of. However, Thomas Jefferson, Dalcina and Elizabeth always - without exception - listed their place of birth as Indiana. They never listed KY or any other state on any record that I have seen. This may play hob with the chronology of when they arrived in Indiana from Kentucky but their statements on census records is about all I have to go on. Oral history was that Thomas Jefferson was born in Indiana but I have nothing from Grandpa on Elizabeth or Dalcina.

In early Texas records there is a record of an Abaslom Gibson. I had always ignored this record since I never heard the name from Grandpa. Next trip to Austin, where the state has a genealogy section, I will see what I can run down. Abaslom is a misspelling of the old Galic Scotts name of Abaslon.

In the dim recesses of my mind I still carry a memory - very vague - that Grandpa John said the Gipsons came out of New England. Have you ever heard anything along this line? A hurried scan of early New England records shows Gipsons all over the place going well back into the 1600's but I have nothing to go on until we pin down where Archibald Sr. was born. I am aware he or someone listed PA as the state of his birth on the 1850 census but I am not at all sure I am ready to accept that. Although I feel they arrived in the states ca 1740 that is only a guess on my part and may be 100 years off.

Concerning the stories about Archibald Jr. that I sent: These were written with only one goal in mind and that was to preserve them. As far as I am concerned they are in public domain and anyone can have them.

I need your thoughts on a problem I have with James who came to Texas in 1830. We know when he got to Texas as I have an old document issued by the State of Texas & Coahuilla - which is what Texas was called prior to 1836. However James had children born in the midwest after the above date. Had they all been born in Indiana I would not have a question as that would be fairly easy to understand - Hia wife, Sarah, just stayed home with the rest of the Gipsons while James was down in Texas fighting Indians and Mexicans. Every other year or so James would go home to Indiana and natuarally, another child would be conceived. BUT, son John was born in Illinois ca 1832, James Jr, (my line) was born in 1834 in Iowa and daughter Mary was born in Iowa ca 1836. The question is why was wife Sarah gradually moving on westward and who was she with. I suspect that the Gipsons she remained behind with were gradually moving west and she just went with them. Do you have any ideas who this might have been?

I have not had an opportunity to get anything photocopied for you but will do so as soon as I can.

Last question: On the 1880 federal census of Gonzales, Texas, Archibald Jr. said his father was born in Tennessee and his mother was born in Georgia. This does not compute with any other data I have or have heard of. Of course he was near 80 years old and I think his mind was not good at that stage of life but it is still a problem. Do you have any ideas?

Happy hunting!!!!

LEVEN COLE 1745 - 1816

Welcome to my Web Page on Leven COLE, otherwise known as the "Elusive Leven".

After researching the COLE family for many years, and checking out every possible lead or tip, I have come to a dead end on Leven's past beyond North Carolina.

I would like to start off with a very special "Thank You" to my "Biggest Buddy" in genealogy, Earl (Wes) MUNDY. We work so well together and we both have made a lot of progress on this family sharing and brainstorming.

A "Big Thank You" to the late Ron COLE, Sr. and also his son Ron COLE, Jr. for a lot of documents and research they shared with Wes and me. A special thanks to Marian PORTER, Jerri SUDDERTH, and Sherry CLARK for sharing. And thanks to all you EOFF and GIBSON researchers that have shared as well.

It is not my intent to dispute anyone's research or theories, but to present my own on this family. I welcome any comments, corrections and any additional information on this family.

Please feel free to email me, Beverly Mundy, at bvmundy@aol.com part of letter to Jules re.Floyd Co.KY Gipsons - March 1, 1990

But back to the Gipsons. I am happy to report that I have additional data on the Gipsons in Floyd Co.KY. First--you may recall that there was an Ezekiel, Joel and Archibald in Wilkes/Ashe Co. NC 1790. It appears that Joel stayed in Ashe Co. and eventually sold all the land the Gipsons had about 1805. Ezekiel and Archebald show up in Floyd Co. Three land deeds 1843-47, name the heirs of Ezekiel; and a complete copy of Floyd Co. marriage bonds and marriages shows the names of three Gipson girls who are NOT daughters of Ezekiel--and I think for now we may assume that these girls are probably the daughters of Archibald and Veshta--they are Nancy, Charity and Polly--all under 10 in 1810.

Nancy married Hiram Young c.1 Feb 1821. (Marr.bond dtd. 29 Jan 1821)
She may have remarried Daniel Clark 4 May 1824 (second marr. bond)

Charity married William Branham - marr. bond 5 Dec 1816

Polly m. Leonard Terry 1819--and I think Leonard Terry is also related to the Gipsons as he was named as an heir of Ezekiel's. She may be Leonard's second wife.

Archebald's sons are those we already know--Joel was Ezekiel's son; there is no Jordan or Absalom in the records...further no Jordan or Absolam in the census anywhere until 1830-40.

About Archebald--he is named as one of the early pioneers of Floyd Co. Archibald was appointed constable in Floyd Co. 1814-1816. Was appointed Surveyor of Roads in 1819, Roads Superintendent in 1820. He was party to some court action with a Mr. Johnson in 1824.

THE EAST KENTUCKIAN, a magazine of history and genealogy, begins publication with this issue. It will be devoted to the history and the genealogy of Eastern Kentucky people and their descendants in America, wherever found. It is proposed to make this publication a clearinghouse of information on those families that settled Eastern Kentucky and to publish articles on the history of the region. It is the first publication of this kind on Eastern Kentucky and the editor and publisher trust that it will be favorably received by historians, genealogists, students and librarians.

The editor is a former newspaperman and has written numerous pamphlets,booklets and feature stories on the region. He is associated either as member or officer with several historical societies and enjoys a wide correspondence with hundreds who are studying Eastern Kentucky history and genealogy. Having amassed a large collection of material, much of it unpublished, on the region's people, it is planned to make this material available in this magazine.

Your trial subscription is invited. If you do not want to subscribe now for the full year you may send $1.50 for separate issues. In the meantime accept this copy as complimentary.

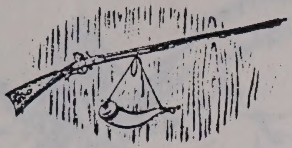
THE EAST KENTUCKIAN salutes Mrs. Hazel Mason Boyd(Mrs. Carl B. Boyd), chief contributor of the material in this issue of the journal. She is one of the most indefatigable genealogical researchers in Eastern Kentucky and has compiled a vast amount of information on Montgomery County. She has collected genealogical and historical material on Montgomery since 1945 for the D. A. R. and Kentucky Historical Society. Born Emily Hazel Mason, Nov. 26, 1912, daughter of Jas. Shirley and Nelle (Roe) Mason, she, after acquiring an education, taught 5 years in Mapleton Elementary School. Married Carl B. Boyd, Mar. 20, 1935. They are parents of two sons. She is member of the Methodist Church, Filson Club and Kentucky Historical Society.



FLOYD COUNTY ORDER BOOK I - 1808-1813

By Brenda Sue Smallwood, Georgetown, Ky.

Last of a series of articles

NOVEMBER TERM COURT - 1813

Court held Monday, November 22, 1813. Present, Jas. Lacy, Harry Stratton, William Martin, Ebenezer Hanna, Jas. Brown, Gentlemen Justices.

In 1813 wolves were especially destructive in Floyd County, Kentucky, and the court had place a bounty of $1 for young wolf scalps and $1.50 for old wolf scalps. The following were paid various amounts for scalps, some as low as $1, some as high as $4.50. Paid were George Walters, John Lemaster, Samuel Maguire, Archibald Gibson, William Martin as assignee of Jacob Coburn, Jas. Ferguson, John Fitzpatrick, Thos. Caskey, Thos. Collinsworth, Daniel Peyton, Jas. Maguire, Thos. Lewis, John Williams, Joseph Bailey, Allen Lesley, Thos. Hamilton, Jr., Rhodes Mead, William Johnson, Henry Conley, Isaac Williams, Bazwell Cazwell ?, Jenny Gerrald ?. Others receiving various amounts for official duties were Wm. Jas. Mayo, Thos. Evans, John Higgins, Jas. Lacy, Henry Burgess, Harry Stratton, Spencer Adkins, William Martin, Spencer Adkins, Alexander Lackey, Robert Haws, John Brown. Most of these latter named were paid from levy for acting as election officials at various precincts.

Thomas C. Brown, deputy sheriff, paid $1 for "comparing poles at courthouse." John Turman, same. Robert Haws, 2 days, Harry Stratton, 2 days, Jas. Brown, 3 days, "setting with collector." Also, Wm. Jas. Mayo, $1.33 for the same.

Ordered that John Stratton be paid 75¢ for "one day guarding E. Osburn on arrest." Hiram Stratton and Richard Priest were also allowed 75¢ each for same guard service. Eli Shortridge was allowed $35 "as States Attorney."

Court held Tuesday, November 23, 1813. Present, Robt. Haws, Spencer Adkins, Harry Stratton, Wm. Martin, Jas. Lacy, Ebenezer Hanna, Gent. Justices.

The following order was entered: J... Mayo, W. McBroom, Robert Turman, John Turman were allowed $2.25 each, John McBride allowed $1.50 for "standing guard while E. Osburn was committed to custody of jailor."

Ordered that these men be allowed payment for wolf scalps: Wm. Patton, John McCoy, Richard Whitt, Obadiah Blankenship, Gabriel Parsons, Moses Adkins, Sherwood Osburn, Spencer Speers, Ambrose Mullins, William Mullins.

Ordered that John Graham be allowed $138.00 for expenses and fees in running "the county line from the mouth of Beaver to the Forks of Big Sandy."

An order, partially illegible, was entered relative "to the 2 bridges between the courthouse & Abbott Shoal." It appears that Thomas Hamilton, "undertaker," wanted a certain order set aside.

Ordered that James Lacy, a commissioner to run the county line, be paid $27 for expenses.

Report of a settlement with John Back, paymaster of the 56th Ky. Regt., received.

Motion by Rhodes Mead and Tandy Stratton, and ordered, that they, with James S. Lain and Alexander Lackey, be securities for the latter for $2,000 as administrators of estate of Richard Priest, deceased. Richard Damron, Christopher Tolar, Harry Stratton and John Hackwith named appraisors of the Richard Priest estate.

Early Jamestown was First "Capital" of Boone County

When the Indiana General Assembly, on January 29, 1830, passed "an Act for the formation of a new county, north of Marion and Hendricks counties, effective on April 1, 1830," naming it in honor of Daniel Boone, the famous Kentucky frontiersman, it also appointed five men from nearby counties as commissioners to select the county seat for the fledgling unit of local government.

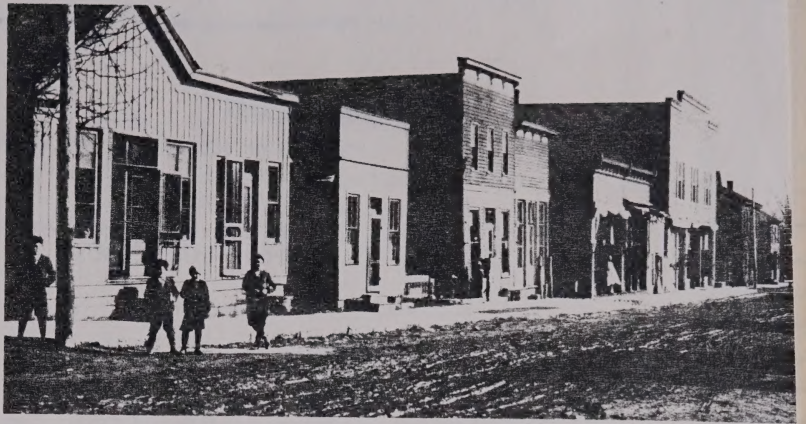
The commissioners were to meet "at the house of Austin Davenport, in said county of Boone, on the first Monday of June next . . . to discharge the duties assigned them by law." In compliance with the statutory order, the quintet met in Davenport's log cabin in Eagle Township on June 7, 1830, and chose the tiny hamlet of Jamestown, in the far southwest corner of the new county, as the seat of Boone County government.

Jamestown was chosen because it was the most populous settlement in the county at that time, although it contained less than a dozen log house, and, most likely, a general store. Little county business, other than holding the first term of the Boone Circuit Court on April 19-20, 1832, in John Galvin's cabin, was transacted in Jamestown. The need for the county seat to be more centrally located resulted in the founding of Lebanon in 1832, and its selection on May 1st of that year as Boone's new capital city.

Jamestown's early history is most interesting. It all began when John R. Gibson (or Gipson, as the name is also spelled) came up from Kentucky, and on October 3, 1828, bought from the U.S. government through the Federal Land Office at Crawfordsville, 80 acres of land described as the west half of the southeast quarter of section 10, Township 17 North, Range 2 West.

Before the ink was scarcely dry on the deed, Gibson began dreaming of founding a town on the south half of his acreage. As the first step in making his dream come true, Gibson took James Matlock in as a partner in the venture. In 1829, the two laid out a 16-block town plat, arranged in a square and located astraddle the Indianapolis-Crawfordsville road.

Matlock's physical interest in the enterprise were the eight blocks south of the highway, with Gibson owning the eight blocks north of the road. To settle the matter of which one would have the honor of naming the new town, the toss of a coin favored Matlock, and he straight way immortalized his given name by christening the burg-to-be Jamestown.



Scene on Jamestown's Main Street prior to building the brick road in the early 1920's

October 28, 1829, with area settlers coming from far and near to help with the work of putting the heavy logs in place. The logs of Gibson's cabin were not hewn square, but were left in the round, and overlapped at the corners of the structure.

Within the next few months, several more cabins went up, and Samuel Hughes opened a store in a log building on the south side of Main street. Shortly afterward, John Galvin started a store on a corner of Main and Lebanon streets in competition with Hughes. Some of the first settlers of Jamestown included the Gibsons, Matlocks, Davises, Smiths, Calhouns, Mallets, Hughes, Schemerhorns, Tiptons, Turners, Coveys, Trotters, Taulbys, Youngs, and Galvins.

Gibson and Matlock filed the plat of Jamestown in the Hendricks County recorder's office on March 10, 1830, twenty days before Boone County officially came into being. On February 8, 1836, the Indiana General Assembly approved an act whereby "The Boone County recorder is authorized to record the plat of Jamestown in the records of his office in the same manner as if never recorded in Hendricks County.

Jamestown got a post office on September 5, 1831, with Jacob Tipton as postmaster. Tipton was the third to open a store in the village, and the post office was housed in his establishment. Jamestown's post office today is the charge of John R. Douglas as postmaster. There is no city delivery service, the residents going to the office for their mail, but two rural routes cover the surrounding area.

Until the railroad came, Jamestown prospered as a stage coach center with taverns for the travelers and livery stables for housing and feeding the coach horses. Jamestown was about midway of the stage line operating between Indianapolis and Crawfordsville, and served as a relay station where the teams pulling the coaches were changed.

Lebanon in 1852 caused some depression in other Jamestown businesses, but when, in 1868-69, Jamestown got its town steamline, the Indiana, Bloomington & Western Railroad, later known as the Peoria Division of the Big Four, things began to boom in the Jackson Township metropolis.

According to U.S. Census records, Jamestown had a population of 603 in 1870, and had slowly grown to 696 by 1880. The count dropped to 616 in 1890, climbed to 640 in 1900, and on up to 690 in 1910. It slumped to 628 in 1920, and further sagged to 552 in 1930, but rose to 583 in 1940. It went up to 718 in 1950, and on up to 827 in 1960. The 1970 Census showed it as having reached the all-time high of 938. The 1980 census showed a count of 924.

1976 to Present

1976 was a banner year for Jamestown. Inasmuch as this was the year of the American Revolution Bicentennial, the town formed a Bicentennial Committee and from that beginning came a 3-day celebration (May 28, 29, 30) — the likes of which the citizens had not seen for quite a spell. RE: Gibson Line/Progenitor Archibald

Dear Marian,

So happy to receive your letter and thank you for the opportunity to serve you in the capacity of locating our wonderful ancestors.

My fee is $5 per hour plus any copies I will take for you at the courthouse. If it is information I can retrieve here at home, my charge is only 15 cents as I have a copier, however the courthouse charges are horrendous. If I copy at the library the fee is 50 cents. Most confusing, don't you think? You have paid $25.00 so I went immediately to work on your Gibson family.

My husband has a Gibson line and I have neglected it terribly, so this may prime me to get started on it also. An Allie Gibson, born c1820 and born in Indiana married Josiah Stultz. Josiah and Allie are my husband's great grandparents. The resided in Terre Haute, Vigo County, IN as does most of their descendants right now. We are the ones that have moved away, but not too far. I haven't found a marriage for Josiah and Allie, however it is possible she comes from the Gibson family of Vermillion and Putnam Counties????

Now back to your family.

I also found another deed which wasn't indexed and it was in book 10 page 374 -Isaac Gibson to Elizabeth Hall X. From all indications, Isaac was probably giving his daughter Elizabeth the property mentioned. Sounds as if Isaac Gibson wasn't too fond of his son-in-law. Also note that Isaac and his wife, Anne Gibson, in 1845 had moved to Boyle County, KY. Note* The "X" indicates I have the deed copy enclosed.

Hi Marion - I received your email address from Bev Mundy and she suggested I write.

My connection to the surname is Rachel Gipson, my 3rd G Grandmother. Below is most of the info I have accumulated most from 2 court documents from Clinton County, Indiana.

Any info I can help with please ask. Any info I have in error please point out. The bold underlined info is my direct line.

Thank you and have a nice day.

ministers, S. G. Smith, G. H. Mavity, H. A. Davis, A. W. Jackman, Lee Tinsley, John E. Prebstel, H. A. Turney, Kenneth Thorne. At the fifth annual Home Coming the trustees presented the present building to the Church free from debt. In March, 1927, the Ladies' Auxiliary purchased a parsonage, which is well on the way of being free from debt and on Marh, 1927, the Church extended a call to C. D. Secrist of Eaton, Indiana, as minister. He began his services with them in May. The present membership is near 300 and with the last year having netted 44 additions. Little did the Midway brethren realize what they were sowing or the results of their efforts.

Kirklin Christian Church

The first Church built in Kirklin Township by the Disciples of Christ was erected on a hill just north of the Sugar Creek bridge and on the east side of the Lafayette and Newcastle road, locally known as the Frankfort-Kirklin road.

This was a log Church and was built in 1846. Among the earlier preachers were Messrs. Lockhart and McKinsey.

Ferguson, Holcraft, McClamroch, Gallaher and Gorham were names found among the early membership.

This Church was known as the Deephole Church by some people and by others as the Bridge Church.

The log Church was replaced by a frame building that was dedicated in the autumn of 1865.

M. B. McKinsey, Mordecai McKinsey and A. E. Elmore were some of the ministers who worked in this frame building up to the time of its abandonment about 1880. The two McKinseys were designated as "Long" Mordecai and "Short" Mordecai.

On May 25, 1888, 22 Disciples of Christ, some of whom had been members of the Deephole Church began a movement toward the organization of a church in Kirklin and through the efforts of G. A. Johnson 17 more names were added to the Church roll by Dec. 30 of the same year. Thirteen by baptism.

M. B. McKinsey took charge of the work in the last days of 1888 and by May 1, 1889, had increased the membership to 93.

The organization was completed by M. B. McKinsey in February, 1889, at which time W. D. Fall and B. M. Guirl were appointed as elders and B. H. Gorham and Andrew Burgess as deacons.

In June, 1889, Milo S. Gipson, Samuel W. Scott and Elizabeth J. McClamroch were elected trustees.

On Dec. 18, 1890, a larger board consisting of six elders, six deacons, clerk and treasurer was elected; three trustees being elected Jan. 2, 1891.

The Kirklin congregation met for a few months in an old school building on Pike Street, one-half block south of the present Church.

About 1891 a new Church was built on the northeast corner of Pike and Jefferson Streets. John D. Vail, who was a member at this time, deserves honorable mention, since he served for several years —without pay—as janitor.

In August, 1914, the Church was destroyed by fire and in 1915 a new and more convenient building was erected which is still in use by a wide-awake people.

Some of the ministers who have charge of the Kirklin Church are Archibald M. Hall J. T. Alford, G. W. Infield, I. N. Grisso, N. H. Vandervort, J. Sherrod and many others.

P. D. Snipes, who has lately returned from Africa where he has been a missionary, was pastor at Kirklin for two years.

Our present pastor, F. G. H. Cook, has offered his resignation in order to take charge of the First Christian Church of Brooklyn, New York.

Other Christian Churches

The Michigantown Christian Church has a membership of 170, with Rev. F. G. H. Cook of Butler College as minister. West Point Christian Church located at Russiaville has a membership of 79 with Rev. George H. Wilson of Butler College as minister. No report was received from either of these organizations.

Antioch Christian Congregational Church

The Antioch Christian Church was organized March 21, 1861, in the home of Adam and Jane Kern, under the leadership of Rev. T. R. Allen. Services were held in the Antioch school house for a while. The first Church building was erected in a grove near where Ray Boyer now lives, and services were held there until 1867, when it was moved to its present location. The building was remodeled in the spring of 1895, and burned in December of the same year. It was rebuilt in 1896 and was completely destroyed this year.

A new Church building was soon begun, and is now about ready for use. The Antioch Christian Church has served as a community center for the people living in that vicinity, and the new building will give them added incentive for ther endeavors.

Manson Christian Church

The beginning of a Christian Church in the Manson vicinity was in the Anderson school house, one-half mile west of the village. Meetings were held there once a month for a while by different ministers.

Rev. J. S. Maxwell from Ladoga came and preached and visited and worked to have a Church

HISTORY NOTES: Ezekiel GIBSON (#780)

Ezekiel Gibson along with Archibald Gibson came to Floyd County Kentucky sometime between 1800 and 1810, we think 1803. Both Ezekiel and Archibald are listed in the 1790 Wilkes Co., NC census and the 1800 Ashe Co., NC census and both men are found in the 1810 Floyd Co., KY census. According to the 1800 North Carolina census index, Ezekiel is shown to have 3 free persons in the family, execpt Indians not taxed.

It appears that Ezekiel Gibson was born about 1765 and that his wife Rachel Terry was born about 1780, some 15 years his younger. It is very possible that Ezekiel was married before, and that Rachel Terry is perhaps not the mother of the older children.

Facts about Ezekiel Gibson (b. ca. 1765):

1800	Ashe County NC census lists Ezekiel Gibson along with Archibald, Joel and Andrew Gibson. Stokes County NC census also lists an Ezekiel Gibson along with Robert, Valentine, and William Gibson.
08	Ezekiel Gibson bought land, 69 acres from Mason Williams in Floyd Co.
810	Ezekiel Gibson listed in the Floyd County KY census, shown living with him 5 males and 3 females.
1817	Ezekiel Gibson bought land on Beaver Creek from James Pratt for $350 on 19 May 1817, 69 acres on Caney Fork. Deed Book A, page 425.
1820	Ezekiel Gibson listed in the Floyd County KY census, shown in the household are 4 males under 10 years, 1 male 10-16 years, 1 male over 45 years, 3 females under 10 years, 1 female 10-16 years, 1 female 16-26 years, 1 female 26-45 years.
1821	Ezekiel Gibson sold land to John Hoff (Huff), 5 acres for $40 on Caney Fork of Beaver Creek, 28 May 1821.
1828	Rachel Terry Gibson married John Pridemore. Ezekiel must be deceased.

Tales of Arch Gipson in Texas
from Jules Gipson
Johnson City, TX

ORAL HISTORY

The following are stories that were told to me by my grandfather John Gipson. This was during the period of about 1939 up until his death in 1948. During this time we were perfect companions ---- I wanted someone to talk to me about the so-called old days when there were real cowboys and Indians and Grandpa (pronounced Gran-paw), as I always called him, wanted someone to listen to his stories.

It has always amazed me in later years just how accurate these stories were in those cases where I could find some documented historical source. Everything he told me was of course not documented by some third party but I have found sufficient evidence in historical records so that I have no doubts about their authencitity or his veracity. I only wish I had set these down years ago as I have no idea of how many different stories he told me or how many of them I have forgotten in the years since. At any rate, hold onto your hats as away we go.

ARCHIBALD GIPSON

Arch Comes To Texas

Prior to coming to Texas, Archibald was employed on a stock farm in Boone County, Indiana. From my memory of the things Grandpa told me about Arch, I have him pictured as something like General Custer - long, well groomed hair(a supposition on my part) and a long flowing handlebar mustach which Grandad well described and which is not a supposition. Apparently Arch, like so many of the Gipsons, liked his Saturday afternoon drink. One afternoon, so the story goes, Arch was sleeping off the effects of one or two too many under a tree close to his employers house. Two girls, age unknown by me, decided to have some fun with the comatose Arch. They found some fresh chicken fecal material which they smeared very liberally into his long handlebar mustach and beard. When he awoke from his stupor, he was somewhat put out with the entire affair, so he pulled up some bull-nettle bushes and whipped the legs of the two girls. Apparently the girls father did not take too kindly to this treatment of his daughters and fired Arch on the spot. This happened to coincide with James Gipson's overtures to Arch to join him in a move to Texas and Arch, quite naturally, accepted.(Unlike the remainder of the stories which follow, this account has been handed down by a descendent of Arch, and not via Grandpa John)

Arch, the Businessman

Grandpa said that the primary way that Arch made his living in Texas was to follow Indian raiding parties to pick up abandoned horses. The Indians raids were not, in general, small groups of Indians that were depicted in movies but were usually a hundred or so Indians and perhaps 2 to 3 hundred horses. These raids would sometimes cover several hundred miles and many horses would not be able to make the entire trip. As the horses gave out, the Indians would simply abandon them and ride another. Arch would follow these raiding parties and capture the abandoned ponies and then take them home where he would nurse them back to health and sell them to whoever needed horses. This was probably about every man in Texas as the horse was practically a necessity at that time in Texas history.

I grew to have some doubts about this tale until I chanced upon a reference in the book, "Now You Hear My Horn - The Journal of James Wilson Nichols 1820-1887", published by the University of Texas Press. This man was a contemporary of Archibald and James in early Texas and he has frequent references to both of them. On page 178 is a quote in connection with Indian ponies ..."and Gipson used them all togeather(sic). When the Indians would steal his horses he would say, "Well, they got none but their own and I am not the looser"." The editors of the book has attributed this statement to James Gipson but since Nichols does not mention a first name I am positive that the statement was by Archibald rather than James since I never heard of James engaging in this type of activity. It is also more in keeping with the charcter of Archibald as I have come to know him.

Arch, The Fighter

When you read the accounts of the early Texas Indian fights as well as the fights with Mexican troops, you almost get the impression that if a battle was about to be joined and Arch was not there that someone would say, "Hold up boys - Arch ain't here yet". He was in enough battles and scrapes to be called an authentic Texas hero but there was never anyone to blow his horn and make him well known as others who were his contemporaries but who did much less than he. The fight that I remember hearing the most about was the one where the Mexican troops shot out his eye. This story Grandad told me so many times that I could never forget it. It took place while the Texian forces were fighting the Woll Expeditionary forces. The Mexican forces had a cannon trained on the Texian forces and were really creating havoc. The commander of the Texians ask for volunteers to ride up to the cannon and "spike" it. According to grandad, this involved getting to the cannon and driving a nail or some tight fitting piece of metal into the touch hole. The effect of this was that the cannon was disabled. However this would also be something that was pretty damn hard to do since they first had to get to the cannon in ther middle of the Mexican forces. At any rate Arch and a couple of others volunteered. They jumped on their horses, rode into the middle of the Mexican troops, shot the cannoners with their pistols and Arch jumped down to spike the cannon. He used the butt of his pistol to drive the tang of a small "rat tail" file into the touch hole and then broke the tang off - which left the cannon useless. As Arch was swinging back on his horse, a Mexican soldier raised up not far away and shot at Arch. The bullet went through the corner of one eye socket and across the top of his nose. The two men with him, held Arch on his horse until they could get back to their own lines. Arch of course recovered but he had lost the sight of one eye.

Grandpa said that Arch later went "back east" to see if something could be done to restore his sight but he had no luck. The doctors all told him that nothing could be done. At any rate, Arch never forgave the Mexicans and sought vengance the rest of his life. His favorite was when he was freighting with a wagon and would meet a Mexican going the other way. As soon as the Mexican driver was past, Arch would turn around and hit him with his bull whip. I also suspect strongly, and Grandpa often hinted at this in his own way, that Arch used other means to seek vengance. I am sure that a lot of dead Mexicans were discovered on isolated roads in the next 20 years.

Largely as a result of this wound,I guess, the State of Texas granted Arch a monthly pension in the 1870's. He drew this until his death sometime in the early 1880's. An account of his wounding can be found in the above book by Nichols on page 110. The records of this pension are in the state archives , located in the Lorenzo de Zavala Building. Arch and his battles are mentioned throughout early Texas history and I leave to each of you the joy of discovering them.

Arch, The Lover

Although it would not have been proper, according to Grandpa's Victorian morality, to tell a small boy like myself about Archs' womanizing, he did relate one tale which I guess probably describes Arch as well as anything else I might tell. For reasons that I have never been sure of, Arch had a deep liking for my great-grandfather and frequently took him along on some of his escapades. The following took place in San Antonio. Arch had to go there on business and took great-grandfather James with him. At the time James was only about 10 years old so this must have been around 1844. After Arch had finished his business in San Antonio, it was almost dark so they decided to spend the night. Arch, looking for a little action, decided to attend a Mexican fandango that night and James went with him. Arch was attracted to one particular woman and apparently spent too much time dancing with her. Her escort took umberage at this and set out to teach Arch a lesson about leaving his woman alone. He and some of his friends approached Arch with the intent of, I guess, beating him up. This Arch would not stand for so he pulled his pistol, shot the Mexican several times, grabbed James on the run, threw him into the saddle and jumped on behind him. They spent the rest of the night riding towards Gonzales and dodging the posse of Mexicans who chased them. Grandpa always used this story to show how fearless he thought Arch was.

Arch, The Reticent

There is nothing to report here.

Archs' Wife and Children

Although I have long since forgotten the name of his wife, she was the daughter of Mitchell Putman. Apparently she was in ill health a large portion of her life and did not live much past 1850 if she made it that long. Her sister, name now forgotten by me also, but it should be listed in the account of the kidnapping of the Putman and Lockhart children included with this folder, was carried off by the Indians when she was a very young girl and was held captive for several years. This was one of Grandpas' favorite stories but the above mentioned account tells it much better than I remember the story. I used to pester him to tell me the story again and again. I don't remember why

I was so fascinated with this one.

I never knew exactly how many children Arch had. There is a court document in the Gonzales County Clerks' office dated March 31, 1858 which lists two boys, Toliver Ferguson Gipson and John L. Gipson, as being children of Arch. I remember Grandpa talking about a "Tol", who was a cousin and that they were big friends and I guess this may have been the same one. The other boy above, John L. married his 1st cousin, Rachael Gipson. She had married a Chew, brother of Lee Anna, but went off to the Civil War and never returned. I believe John L. and Rachael were married in 1867. They had several children as shown on the 1880 Federal Census.

Arch, as Arch

As Grandpa told the story, Arch was attending some type of reunion. This was probably an old Indian fighters and/or army of the Republic of Texas reunion from the way I remember it. I am not sure where it took place but Houston sticks in my mind. I am also unsure of the date but I would guess it to have been in the 1850's or very early 1860's. At any rate, Arch is standing around talking to some old friends when a very tall man approached him from the rear, slapped him on the sholder and said, "Well Arch, you old son of a bitch. I thought you were long since dead". This was Sam Houston. How they knew each other, I am not sure. I am, however, convinced that this incident took place. Proving it would be impossible unless someone happened to hear the exchange and to record it. The best one could hope to accomplish would be to place Sam and Arch at the same reunion.(Mystery time. Grandpa always said, and there is little doubt in my mind about him telling me, that Arch fought in the great San Jacinto battle when Houston strapped it on Santa Anna. I have never been able to locate the name of Arch in connection with this battle. Why? Fact or fiction?)

Arch, A Final Note

The famous Texas historian, Walter Prescott Webb, closes out one of the chapters of his equally famous book, "The Texas Rangers", in the following manner. Webb has been discussing "Big Foot" Wallace, one of the early Texas heros and characters, and says, "Other men who distinguished themselves were Richard Addison Gillespie, Mike Chevaille, John S. Ford, Arch Gibson, Alsey Miller, and John McMullen. In the Mexican War they entered the national service and their fame spread over the nation of which Texas had become a part".

Dear Ms. Shirley,

I'm not/so well today & don't know much about your Andrew Johnson. As you'll see he lived near John in 1810 & is likely connected to that group rather than the Thomas group. Sounds as if he may have had children "out of wedlock", or his son did.

Dear Mr. Veitschegger,

Creda J. Isaacs gave me your name. She tells me you are "a Johnson researcher." That's music to my ears! I wonder if you can help me. I am descended from Lucinda Jane (Jenny) Johnson who married Ezekiel Gibson in Floyd Co. 30 May 1819 by John Brown JP. She was the daughter of Andrew Johnson. (Floyd Co. Ky Records, marriages, File #327) He is the son of Archibald Gibson. Both Ezekiel and Archibald, and other Gibsons and some Johnsons appear to be neighbors in Southeastern Kentucky Census of 1820, p.8.

In 1810 these same Johnsons are door to door, pp.95-96 and include an Andrew who is 16-26....too young to have a daughter b.c.1800-1803.

The SE KY 1820 census has two Andrews, p.13 and p.26. The one on page 13 has 5 children und.10 and was called into court to show why they shouldn't be bound out 1818 and 1820. The one on p.26 appears to be newly arrived from Giles Co.VA, a tavern owner, m. Sarah Indicutt 26 Aug 1821, had a houseful of older people including 4 males 26-45; was active in early Lawrence Co. statehood.

In a nutshell, I don't have enough information to make a decent guess about these Andrews. I hope this is something you can help me with. Please advise me about your charges and what you will need to get started.

Sincerely,

Marian Shirley

KENTUCKY RECORDS

Arthur Johnson born 7 August 1757 in Brunswick County, Va. After the war he went to Kentucky, then Gibson County, Indiana, then White County, Ill. where he died 16 Oct. 1839.

Thomas Johnsen, Capt. William Twetty, Samuel Coburn, James Bridges, John Mart, William Hicks, James Peeke, and Felix Walker left Rutherford County, N.C. Feb. 1775 to explore a country by the name of Leowvisay, now Kentucky.

William Johnston with Daniel Boone and Richard Mendersen died by 1795.

Andrew Johnson with Daniel Boone when captured by Black Fish. Black Fish took them to Detroit, Mi. Andrew never did anything right, but as he was barely 5 feet tall and entranced the Indians all with his dim-witted clowning. Capt. Will (with the Indians) chose Johnson to be his adopted son. Later, Andrew Johnson stole his adopted father's rifle and ran away. The Indians called Andrew, Pequolly, meaning Little-Shut-His-Eyes. From the book, " The Long Hunter."

Benjamin Johnson born in 1758 Orange Co., Va.; died in 1840 in Ky. at the age of 82 and living with W.L. Marrisen when he died.

Martin Johnson, age 63 in 1818, dead; Rev. War soldier.

Lawrence Co. Ky Court Orders -

PETER MOAK VS. SPURLOCK & OTHERS; Oct., 1826; first filed 1822. Moak is Compt. & Frances ("Fanny") Spurlock, Arty Haywood, late Arty Spurlock & John Haywood, her husband, are Defts.

DEPO. OF JAMES WOODS, Oct. 18, 1825: Says Richard Cains lived about 34 miles from Prestonburg (Floyd Co, Ky.) in 1820; that Cains was not able to travel alone due to blindness; traveled little in the winter in icy weather; heard Frances Spurlock tell "old Mr. Cains" in Oct., 1820 to give her back $16.00 she had paid on land on Upper Laurel Creek on Blain (Creek) and sell the land "as quick as he pleased" as she was unable to pay the remainder.

DEPO. OF MARGARET CAINS, Oct. 18, 1825: That Richard Cains, now deceased, was in Prestonsburg a day or two before Christmas, 1819, and "came home" on Christmas day; R. Cains returned to Prestonsburg for "July Court for the County of Floyd."

DEPO. OF MEREDITH EDWARDS, July 31, 1824: It was his understanding there was a verbal contract between Cains and Spurlock and they were later to enter into a written contract; that he was a witness the verbal contract was cancelled. States he heard R. Cains "attack one William Harrell at the Floyd Court." William Harrell who lives on Abbot's Creek denied he was the subscribing witness to an order for John Grayham, surveyor, to transfer the "platt and certificate" to Frances Spurlock; Meredith Edwards verifies that Peter Moak paid $150.00 for the land in "money, cattle, and gun powder." Yet, M. Edwards heard Richard Cains tell Benjamin Morris to give an order in his name for Grayham to transfer the plat providing Mrs. Frances Spurlock could make payment. Morris did not give the order.

DEPO. OF DAVID P. MOSELEY: When questioned answered he knew of only one John Harrell who was the son of Wm. Harrell, both of Floyd Co., Ky.

DEPO. OF SOLOMON SCAGGS, Nov. 21, 1826, AT THE HOME OF ANDREW JOHNSON, LOUISA, KY.: Scaggs states he was with Stephen Harper, Deputy Surveyor of Floyd Co., when the survey was made which was on July 26, 1819; that he was there at R. Cain's request because he was blind.

Lawrence Co

ANS. OF FRANCES SPURLOCK, April 21, 1823, FLOYD CO., KY.: "This respondent denies any and every kind of fraud and collusion that the Compt. alleges"; that it is true she purchased a Land Warrant Entry and Survey from R. Caines, that Cains gave the order to John Graham to make the transfer after she paid $16.00 of the $100.00 purchase price; that for "natural & parental love and affection for her daughter, Arty Spurlock, she transferred the title to her.

ANS. OF ARTY SPURLOCK, April 21, 1823, FLOYD CO., KY.: That she was a child when her mother, Frances, transferred the land to her and she knew nothing of any fraud.

DEPOS. OF ROBERT GRIFFITH AND ABLE GRIFFITH, Mar. 2, 1825, BOTH TAKEN IN LAWRENCE CO., KY.: The witnesses relate only what they know of Mrs. Frances Spurlock having paid $16.00 to

SAMUEL HOGAN VS. DEAN AND TURMAN, Apr. 15, 1850: This case involves a promisory note made by John Dean and James Turman in January, 1849, for $64.00. The loan was made by Samuel Hogan. However, Hogan is suing "for the use and benefit of Jefferson Gilkerson." No explanation is given as to why Hogan sues for Gilkerson and no decree is given.

J. W. ROBINETTE VS. NANCY ROBINETTE, May 6, 1845: The compt., Jesse W. Robinette, states he was married to Nancy Lewis, now Robinette, in January, 1842, in Perry Co., Ky. He now resides in Lawrence Co. "From that time until June of 1843 they lived together contented and happy when without any cause known and to his great mortification his said wife abandoned him. He refuses to state the name of the man with whom "she left" but knows they now live in "Scott Co., Va."

DEPO. OF SAMPSON ROBINETTE TAKEN AT THE COURT HOUSE IN THE TOWN OF WHITESBURG IN LETCHER CO., KY., Mar. 31, 1846: In sworn testimony, S. Robinette relates that he personally delivered a spa. to Nancy Robinette in Letcher Co. He also states he was present at the marriage of Jesse and Nancy Robinette in 1842. He says that Jesse R. "went to meeting one morning" and when he returned the deft., Nancy R., had eloped with a "man named Thomas Rogers." She (Nancy) then went to the house of her father and lived there and still does with Rogers. She has "had one child by him and the birth of the child was nine or ten months after her separation from her husband."

DEPO. OF WILLIAM LEWIS, SAME TIME AND PLACE: Lewis says he is the brother of the deft., Nancy Robinette. William Lewis confirms all that Sampson Robinette says is true about his sister including the birth of a child. He (Wm. Lewis) lived two miles from the Robinettes and visited with them frequently.

DEPO. OF JOHN JONES, SAME TIME AND PLACE: Swears he is well acquainted with both the compt. and deft. and that the deft., Nancy R., abandoned her husband about 2 years ago and has "cohabited with one Thomas Rogers and has a child by him."

DEPOS. ALSO TAKEN FROM: Arthur L. Maness and Louvisa Hylton.

ACHILLES SNEED VS. JOSEPH R. WARD AND OTHERS, Apr. 30, 1823: By his attorney, Henry Daniel, Achilles Sneed, files a bill of ejectment against the following: Joseph R. Ward, Andrew Johnson, Joseph Edwards, John Chaffin, James Skidmore, Reuben Carnutte (Curnutte?), Jeremiah Wellman, Andrew J. Chapman, David Johnson, Milly Chaffin, David Chaffin, Rebecca Stobuck, Henry Skidmore, Allen Colley, Moses R. D. Smith, Elisha Wellman, and Job Caines. Sneed (by his attorney) states he "is informed that you (NOTE: meaning all the above named individuals) are in possession of or claim some title to the premises mentioned. I shall solicit judgement that you be turned out of possession."

The opening sentnece of the compt. Sneed's plea to the court is worded in a rather unusual way in so far as its reference to the State or Commonwealth of Kentucky. It reads: "...for whereas Achilles Sneed did on the 22nd day of October in the year of our Lord 1822 at the parish of Kentucky and county and pay all such costs adjudged to him from appeal."

FINAL DECREE, April 15, 1826: Vincent and Murphy are compromising the appeal with the condition that Vincent is to pay all court costs. The case was dismissed.

DAVID MARTIN VS. RUDOLPH SPERRY AND CYRUS C. DAMRELL, June 19, 1839: Martin, the ptf., states he holds a note on Damrell and Sperry in the amount of $155.00. This note has been owed since 1837. Martin asks for judgement for the amount and the court costs.

NOTICE FILED BY DAMRELL AND SPERRY, Oct. 15, 1839: The defts. address David Martin to "take notice" that $33.00 was paid on the note to George W. Grayson on Mar. 28, 1838. Grayson was then the agent of David Martin and promised to credit the note.

NO FINAL DECREE IS GIVEN.

ANDREW JOHNSON VS. SAMUEL SELLARDS, Mar. 30, 1823: A. Johnson, in his plea by his attorney, John W. McConnell, says S. Sellards has broken a covenant. On the 13th day of Sept., 1820, Sellards agreed in writing that he had received of the compt. Johnson $46.00 in full for an execution against Johnson obtained by Isacc Frampton before Lewis Wellman, Justice of the Peace for Floyd Co., Ky. The deft. had become the compt's bail. The written agreement was a release for Johnson. Johnson says the deft. has not kept the covenant nor paid the interest due. Johnson now sues for $100.00 and says that Sellards is "bound by the law of the land to satisfy and pay the amount."

The cover wrapper is notated "Case agreed" but no date.

GEORGE HARDWICK VS. LEVI BLEVINS, Aug. 26, 1833: Hardwick brings suit for a plea of trespass against Blevins. Hardwick (NOTE: At the end of p. 46 of the Lawrence Co., Ky. census film for 1840, George Hardwick is listed as a Revolutionary War Pensioner and is age 82 yrs. in 1840.) feels he has always been "reputed esteemed and accepted amongst all his acquaintances" until the deft. accused him (Hardwick) of forgery. Hardwick states his good name has been ruined and sues for $2,000.00 damages.

ANSWER OF DEFT. LEVI BLEVINS, SAME SATE: Levi Blevins' answer emphatically and simply states "he is not guilty in any manner or form of the ptf.'s declaration."

PLEA OF DEFT. LEVI BLEVINS, NO DATE: The deft. "for further plea in his behalf says that "before the speaking of which he has been accused he, Blevins, had been told by Elijah Williamson that if "Hardwick had an order from him (Williamson) to commence a suit against one Bannister that the order was a forgery committed by Hardwick." Blevins does not deny that he had repeated Elijah Williamson's statement publicly but says he always qulified his words as being what he had heard from Williamson. He feels this was in no way illegal or slanderous on his part.

DEPO. OF ELIJAH WILLIAMSON, LOGAN CO., VA. (NOTE: Logan Co., Va., now W. Va., was formed in 1824 from portions of Giles,

The Point of the Forks, envisioned as a real estate dealer's dream, retained its geographic importance. When East Kentucky split into Greenup and Floyd counties in 1803 the boundary was drawn from the river there, a line which was later to become Louisa's Main Street. After the Indian harassment died down, pioneers began to settle slowly. In 1800 there were only 478 counted in all of Floyd County; in 20 years, just before it split into Lawrence, Pike, and Perry, the figure soared to 8,200.

The record books of Floyd County give indication those who settled in the northern segment came to stay, and assigned them road-building responsibilities. Christopher More, on George's Creek . . . Andy Rule, from Keeton's Mill to the Head of Blain . . . Richard Kezee from there to McDowell's Camp . . . - Jesse Barnett, Gilbert Barnette, John McDowell and Andrew Woods from "the ford of Blaine to the county line in a direction to Greenup Courthouse," but Woods and Jesse Barnette were released from their work when they "have gone to the war" in 1814. Hezekiah Borders was given permission to keep a tavern, as were John Burgess and Lewis Ringesberry and Andrew Johnson. Land transactions were steady, with James Sharter selling 176 acres to Isaac Cooksey for $100, to Richard Thompson 142 acres for $100, and to Benjamin Fugitt, 110 acres for $100. And Johnson-Ringesberry sold Frederick Moore 35 acres, later to become downtown Louisa.

Settlers moved in from the head of the river, or across country from Kanawha. Some held grants from Virginia, or dating back to England. Most had little more than the rags on their backs. Many came from Giles County, Virginia; William Chapman, in 1806, to take up a thousand acres on the point bought from David French in 1802; James Vinson, across the river in 1800; Neri Ward and his pregnant wife, Elizabeth, at the Forks in 1803; the Burgesses, who brought their slaves with them. Moses Preston, who left his native Bedford, Virginia, to enlist in the Revolution, came to the Valley in 1800, later settling on George's Creek. Neri Sweatnum came from near Washington in 1818 to take over an immense boundary on upper Blaine Creek. The Borders family, en route from Giles County to Scioto in Ohio in 1802, stopped at Tom's Creek, where the father, John, died, leaving four sons and four daughters. Borders, of German descent, had been with Cornwallis at Yorktown.

John Smith came from North Carolina in 1809 to start a clan at the mouth of Blaine. David and Jennie Graham Garred, after a stop in Kanawha, settled at the Falls of Tug in 1820. James Fraley, in the Valley as a spy before the Revolution, moved in as a permanent settler in Lawrence. Israel Walter died en route north in 1818. His widow, born a Holbrook, followed relatives to Blaine. John and Zeffie Bryan, Vermonters via Virginia and in-laws of Daniel Boone, came down the Ohio in 1798 and in 1800 settled in the Blaine Bottoms near Rove Creek.

They were a hardy bunch, often hard-drinking. They entered on foot, or at best horseback for there were no wagon roads. "These people all travel on horseback with pistols or swords and a large blanket under the saddle," wrote Isaac Weld, a fellow-rider. In they poured, until at formation, the new county had probably over 2,000 residents.

The huge stands of timber were still viewed in terms of house logs; tobacco was grown only for home use or barter; presences of coal and oil were acknowledged, but not yet in a commercial light. The economy slept. What business there was made exchange by barter, but ginseng and hides brought cash. Accounting was usually done in terms of English money, even as late as the founding of the county. Bierne Brothers established an early station for buying produce of the wild country, but a stronger influence came from such men as Frederick Moore, who came to buy and sell and ended up planning the community and guiding it after it was built. His family lingers today in the direction and management of public affairs. Moore, son of a German immigrant, suffered heavy financial loss in his Philadelphia nail factory during the War of 1812, and selling out there, came to the Forks in 1815 with a stock of merchandise. He purchased his land, set up his home on the West Virginia side, and laid out a city plant which became Louisa. The plat is still on file at the courthouse. He trafficked in furs and ginseng and after three years sent for his wife and two daughters to join him. Teen-aged Capt. William Biggs carried them south from Catlettsburg on a packet boat. PETER MOAK VS. SPURLOCK & OTHERS; Oct., 1826; first filed 1822. Moak is Compt. & Frances ("Fanny") Spurlock, Arty Haywood, late Arty Spurlock & John Haywood, her husband, are Defts.

DEPO. OF JAMES WOODS, Oct. 18, 1825: Says Richard Cains lived about 34 miles from Prestonburg (Floyd Co, Ky.) in 1820; that Cains was not able to travel alone due to blindness; traveled little in the winter in icy weather; heard Frances Spurlock tell "old Mr. Cains" in Oct., 1820 to give her back $16.00 she had paid on land on Upper Laurel Creek on Blain (Creek) and sell the land "as quick as he pleased" as she was unable to pay the remainder.

DEPO. OF MARGARET CAINS, Oct. 18, 1825: That Richard Cains, now deceased, was in Prestonsburg a day or two before Christmas, 1819, and "came home" on Christmas day; R. Cains returned to Prestonsburg for "July Court for the County of Floyd."

DEPO. OF MEREDITH EDWARDS, July 31, 1824: It was his understanding there was a verbal contract between Cains and Spurlock and they were later to enter into a written contract; that he was a witness the verbal contract was cancelled. States he heard R. Cains "attack one William Harrell at the Floyd Court." William Harrell who lives on Abbot's Creek denied he was the subscribing witness to an order for John Grayham, surveyor, to transfer the "platt and certificate" to Frances Spurlock; Meredith Edwards verifies that Peter Moak paid $150.00 for the land in "money, cattle, and gun powder." Yet, M. Edwards heard Richard Cains tell Benjamin Morris to give an order in his name for Grayham to transfer the plat providing Mrs. Frances Spurlock could make payment. Morris did not give the order.

DEPO. OF DAVID P. MOSELEY: When questioned answered he knew of only one John Harrell who was the son of Wm. Harrell, both of Floyd Co., Ky.

DEPO. OF SOLOMON SCAGGS, Nov. 21, 1826, AT THE HOME OF ANDREW JOHNSON, LOUISA, KY.: Scaggs states he was with Stephen Harper, Deputy Surveyor of Floyd Co., when the survey was made which was on July 26, 1819; that he was there at R. Cain's request because he was blind.

ANS. OF FRANCES SPURLOCK, April 21, 1823, FLOYD CO., KY.: "This respondent denies any and every kind of fraud and collusion that the Compt. alleges"; that it is true she purchased a Land Warrant Entry and Survey from R. Caines, that Cains gave the order to John Graham to make the transfer after she paid $16.00 of the $100.00 purchase price; that for "natural & parental love and affection for her daughter, Arty Spurlock, she transferred the title to her.

ANS. OF ARTY SPURLOCK, April 21, 1823, FLOYD CO., KY.: That she was a child when her mother, Frances, transferred the land to her and she knew nothing of any fraud.

DEPOS. OF ROBERT GRIFFITH AND ABLE GRIFFITH, Mar. 2, 1825, BOTH TAKEN IN LAWRENCE CO., KY.: The witnesses relate only what they know of Mrs. Frances Spurlock having paid $16.00 to

SAMUEL HOGAN VS. DEAN AND TURMAN, Apr. 15, 1850: This case involves a promisory note made by John Dean and James Turman in January, 1849, for $64.00. The loan was made by Samuel Hogan. However, Hogan is suing "for the use and benefit of Jefferson Gilkerson." No explanation is given as to why Hogan sues for Gilkerson and no decree is given.

J. W. ROBINETTE VS. NANCY ROBINETTE, May 6, 1845: The compt., Jesse W. Robinette, states he was married to Nancy Lewis, now Robinette, in January, 1842, in Perry Co., Ky. He now resides in Lawrence Co. "From that time until June of 1843 they lived together contented and happy when without any cause known and to his great mortification his said wife abandoned him. He refuses to state the name of the man with whom "she left" but knows they now live in "Scott Co., Va."

DEPO. OF SAMPSON ROBINETTE TAKEN AT THE COURT HOUSE IN THE TOWN OF WHITESBURG IN LETCHER CO., KY., Mar. 31, 1846: In sworn testimony, S. Robinette relates that he personally delivered a spa. to Nancy Robinette in Letcher Co. He also states he was present at the marriage of Jesse and Nancy Robinette in 1842. He says that Jesse R. "went to meeting one morning" and when he returned the deft., Nancy R., had eloped with a "man named Thomas Rogers." She (Nancy) then went to the house of her father and lived there and still does with Rogers. She has "had one child by him and the birth of the child was nine or ten months after her separation from her husband."

DEPO. OF WILLIAM LEWIS, SAME TIME AND PLACE: Lewis says he is the brother of the deft., Nancy Robinette. William Lewis confirms all that Sampson Robinette says is true about his sister including the birth of a child. He (Wm. Lewis) lived two miles from the Robinettes and visited with them frequently.

DEPO. OF JOHN JONES, SAME TIME AND PLACE: Swears he is well acquainted with both the compt. and deft. and that the deft., Nancy R., abandoned her husband about 2 years ago and has "cohabited with one Thomas Rogers and has a child by him."

DEPOS. ALSO TAKEN FROM: Arthur L. Maness and Louvisa Hylton.

ACHILLES SNEED VS. JOSEPH R. WARD AND OTHERS, Apr. 30, 1823: By his attorney, Henry Daniel, Achilles Sneed, files a bill of ejectment against the following: Joseph R. Ward, Andrew Johnson, < Joseph Edwards, John Chaffin, James Skidmore, Reuben Carnutte (Curnutte?), Jeremiah Wellman, Andrew J. Chapman, David Johnson, Milly Chaffin, David Chaffin, Rebecca Stobuck, Henry Skidmore, Allen Colley, Moses R. D. Smith, Elisha Wellman, and Job Caines. Sneed (by his attorney) states he "is informed that you (NOTE: meaning all the above named individuals) are in possession of or claim some title to the premises mentioned. I shall solicit judgement that you be turned out of possession."

The opening sentnece of the compt. Sneed's plea to the court is worded in a rather unusual way in so far as its reference to the State or Commonwealth of Kentucky. It reads: "...for whereas Achilles Sneed did on the 22nd day of October in the year of our Lord 1822 at the parish of Kentucky and county and

ACHILLES SNEED VS. JOSEPH R. WARD AND OTHERS, Apr. 30, 1823: By his attorney, Henry Daniel, Achilles Sneed files a bill of ejectment against the following: Joseph R. Ward, Andrew Johnson, Joseph Edwards, John Chaffin, James Skidmore, Reuben Carnutte (Cumnutte?), Jeremiah Wellman, Andrew J. Chapman, David Johnson, Billy Chaffin, David Chaffin, Rebecca Sitbuck, Henry Skidmore, Allen Cnlley, Moses R. D. Smith, Elisha Wellman, and Job Caines. Sneed (by his attorney) states he "is informed that you (NOTE meaning all the above named individuals) are in possession of or claim some title to the premises mentioned. I shall solicit judgement that you be turned out of possession."

The opening sentence of the compt. Snead's plea to the court is worded in a rather unusual way in so far as its reference to the State or Commonwealth of Kentucky. It reads: "..for whereas Achilles Sneed did on the 22nd day of October in the year of our Lord 1822 at the parish of Kentucky and county and circuit aforesaid demise a certain tract of land containing 1,500 acres, 400 acres of cleared land, 100 acres of meadow land, 100 acres of orchard and 900 acres of woodland, etc."

By 1841, Achilles Sneed was deceased. His heirs: were Luke Munsell and Eliza, his wife, late Eliza Sneed who were residing in that year in Marian Co., Indiana - a spa. being served there; Orville Southgate residing in Kenton Co., Ky.; Armstead H. Churchill and Mariah, his wife, late Mariah Sneed; Bryan R. Young and Louisa, his wife, late Louisa Sneed; William S. Harris and Sarah Harris, his wife, late Sarah Sneed; Charlotte Martin.

BENJAMIN BURCHETT VS. GEORGE N. DAVIS, May 14, 1825: Burchett is complaining in a lengthy plea that in recent weeks a certain action was pending in the Lawrence Co. Circuit Court in which George N. Davis was compt. and Bryant Fannin was deft. In public, according to Burchett, Davis has accused him (Burchett) of perjury as a witness at the trial and of having "sworn false." Burchett feels he has been brought "into public scandal" and sues for $1,000.00 damages.

KATHERINE BURNS, ADMR. VS. JOHN BURCHETT, July 16, 1838: In an appeal bond, Katherine Burns and William H. Burns bind themselves to pay $70.00 plus $1.25 court costs to John Burchett if her appeal fails. She is the widow and admr. of Roland Burns, dec'd., and she claims Burchett owed a debt to her husband. Wm. Burns is her son. Katherine had previously received a judgement against her by Thomas Johns, Justice of the Peace. No result of her appeal is given.

JOHN BURCHETT VS. SINCLAIR (AND/OR ST. CLAIR) ROBERTS AND OTHERS, Oct. 17, 1824: "John Burchett, an infant under the age of 21 yrs., by Benjamin Burchett his father and next friend, complains of St. Clair (and/or Sinclair) Roberts and James Brumfield of a plea of trespass and assault and battery on the ____ day of July, 1824." He says he was beaten and bruised and for some time could not attend to his ordinary business. He asks for $75.00 in damages.

SPAS. WERE SERVED ON: Thompson Bell, Isaac Chapman, Thomas Bell, James Rice, John McIntire, Edward Burgess, George Roberts, Robert Burchett.

NO SETTLEMENT OR DEPOS. ARE INCLUDED.

JOHN BURCHETT VS. THOMAS COPLEY, June 16, 1832: In this case, John Burchett is the compt. against Copley in a "breach of covenant." Burchett states that on the 8th day of February, 1820, that Copley obligated himself to pay the sum of "$75.00 lawful money of Ky., for value received." Burchett described the defendant as having "wholly neglected and refused to make payment" and he "brings suit for $150.00."

FINAL DECREE: "We of the jury find for the ptf. (or compt.) $131.40 in damages."

WILLIAM SHORT VS. BENJAMIN JONES, March 28, 1842: William Short "represents" in his plea that Jones is not a resident of circuit aforesaid demise a certain tract of land containing 1,500 acres, 400 acres of cleared land, 100 acres of meadow land, 100 acres of orchard and 900 acres of woodland, etc."

By 1841, Achilles Sneed was deceased. His heirs were Luke Munsell and Eliza, his wife, late Eliza Sneed who were residing in that year in Marion Co., Indiana - a spa. being served there; Orville Southgate residing in Kenton Co., Ky.; Armstead H. Churchill and Mariah, his wife, late Mariah Sneed; Bryan R. Young and Louisa, his wife, late Louisa Sneed; William S. Harris and Sarah Harris, his wife, late Sarah Sneed; Charlotte Martin.

BENJAMIN BURCHETT VS. GEORGE W. DAVIS, May 14, 1825: Burchett is complaining in a lengthy plea that in recent weeks a certain action was pending in the Lawrence Co. Circuit Court in which George W. Davis was compt. and Bryant Lannin was deft. In public, according to Burchett, Davis has accused him (Burchett) of perjury as a witness at the trial and of having "sworn false." Burchett feels he has been brought "into public scandal" and sues for $1,000.00 damages.

KATHERINE BURNS, ADMX. VS. JOHN BURCHETT, July 16, 1838: In an appeal bond, Katharine Burns and William H. Burns bind themselves to pay $70.00 plus $4.75 court costs to John Burchett if her appeal fails. She is the widow and admr. of Roland Burns, dec'd., and she claims Burchett owed a debt to her husband. Wm. Burns is her son. Katharine had previously received a judgement against her by Thomas Johns, Justice of the Peace. No result of her appeal is given.

JOHN BURCHETT VS. SINCLAIR (AND/OR ST. CLAIR) ROBERTS AND OTHERS, Oct. 17, 1824: "John Burchett, an infant under the age of 21 yrs., by Benjamin Burchett his father and next friend, complains of St. Clair (and/or Sinclair) Roberts and James Brumfield of a plea of trespass and assault and battery on the ___ day of July, 1824." He says he was beaten and bruised and for some time could not attend to his ordinary business. He asks for $75.00 in damages.

SPAS. WERE SERVED ON: Thompson Bell, Isaac Chapman, Thomas Bell, James Rice, John McIntire, Edward Burgess, George Roberts, Robert Burchett.

NO SETTLEMENT OR DEPOS. ARE INCLUDED.

JOHN BURCHETT VS. THOMAS COPLEY, June 16, 1832: In this case, John Burchett is the compt. against Copley in a "breach of covenant." Burchett states that on the 8th day of February, 1820, that Copley obligated himself to pay the sum of "$75.00 lawful money of Ky., for value received." Burchett described the defendant as having "wholly neglected and refused to make payment" and he "brings suit for $150.00."

FINAL DECREE: "We of the jury find for the ptf. (or compt.) $131.40 in damages."

WILLIAM SHORT VS. BENJAMIN JONES, March 20, 1847: William Short "represents" in his plea that Jones is not a resident of pay all such costs adjudged to him from appeal."

FINAL DECREE, April 15, 1826: Vincent and Murphy are compromising the appeal with the condition that Vincent is to pav all court costs. The case was dismissed.

DAVID MARTIN VS. RUDOLPH SPERRY AND CYRUS C. DAMRELL, June 19, 1839: Martin, the ptf., states he holds a note on Damrell and Sperry in the amount of $155.00. This note has been owed since 1837. Martin asks for judgement for the amount and the court costs.

NOTICE FILED BY DAMRELL AND SPERRY, Oct. 15, 1839: The defts. address David Martin to "take notice" that $33.00 was paid on the note to George W. Grayson on Mar. 28, 1838. Grayson was then the agent of David Martin and promised to credit the note.

NO FINAL DECREE IS GIVEN.

ANDREW JOHNSON VS. SAMUEL SELLARDS, Mar. 30, 1823: A. Johnson, in his plea by his attorney, John W. McConnell, says S. Sellards has broken a covenant. On the 13th day of Sept., 1820, Sellards agreed in writing that he had received of the compt. Johnson $46.00 in full for an execution against Johnson obtained by Isacc Frampton before Lewis Wellman, Justice of the Peace for Floyd Co., Ky. The deft. had become the compt's bail. The written agreement was a release for Johnson. Johnson says the deft. has not kept the covenant nor paid the interest due. Johnson now sues for $100.00 and says that Sellards is "bound by the law of the land to satisfy and pay the amount."

The cover wrapper is notated "Case agreed" but no date.

GEORGE HARDWICK VS. LEVI BLEVINS, Aug. 26, 1833: Hardwick brings suit for a plea of trespass against Blevins. Hardwick (NOTE: At the end of p. 46 of the Lawrence Co., Ky. census film for 1840, George Hardwick is listed as a Revolutionary War Pensioner and is age 82 yrs. in 1840.) feels he has always been "reputed esteemed and accepted amongst all his acquaintances" until the deft. accused him (Hardwick) of forgery. Hardwick states his good name has been ruined and sues for $2,000.00 damages.

ANSWER OF DEFT. LEVI BLEVINS, SAME SATE: Levi Blevins' answer emphatically and simply states "he is not guilty in any manner or form of the ptf.'s declaration."

PLEA OF DEFT. LEVI BLEVINS, NO DATE: The deft. "for further plea in his behalf says that "before the speaking of which he has been accused he, Blevins, had been told by Elijah Williamson that if "Hardwick had an order from him (Williamson) to commence a suit against one Bannister that the order was a forgery committed by Hardwick." Blevins does not deny that he had repeated Elijah Williamson's statement publicly but says he always qulified his words as being what he had heard from Williamson. He feels this was in no way illegal or slanderous on his part.

DEPO. OF ELIJAH WILLIAMSON, LOGAN CO., VA. (NOTE: Logan Co., Va., now W. Va., was formed in 1824 from portions of Giles,

Endnotes

Archibald and Vashti's ages are quite inconsistent in the census. Their birth dates are estimated. Archibald's LWT names all nine of the above children. They lived in Ashe Co .NC 1790 and 1800; but were also on tax lists in KY as early as 1794; were in 1810, 1820 KY Floyd Co. Census; in Hendricks Co. IN 1830, 1840, 1850. They are buried Jamestown IN

There were several Gibsons in Ashe Co. NC who appeared to be closely related...Archibald, Ezekiel and Zachariah, as well as Joel, Thomas and others. In the 1800 census Archibald, Ezekiel, Joel and Andrew were all counted as free persons of color. In addition, Zachariah was counted as a free person of color in Floyd Co. KY in 1820 - with a white wife and child under 10. (This Ezekiel is an older man — not Ezekiel the son of Archibald and Vashti.)

PEH said John was in KY 12 years. (Don't know how that can be.) James appears to be in both Hendricks Co. IN 1830 and Gonzales TX 1830. Has three females under 10 in IN.

Nancy's marriage bond signed by Archibald in KY

Archie Jr. was a noted Indian fighter in Texas. William may have been in Indiana as early as 1828. Elizabeth was a very large woman, known as Big Toe Bet. PEH reported that a special chair was made for her to sit in and she had to turn sideways to get through a door.

By way of demonstrating how difficult it is to figure Gibson ages from the census, Elizabeth reported that she was 30 years old in 1850. My great great grandmother Lucinda Jane also shaved 15 years off her age in 1850 and was married to her son-in-law's brother. I rather think in the case of Vashti and Archibald, they simply didn't bother to keep count. In 1810, Arch claimed to be under 45 and Vashti claimed to be under 26.

Two females in the Floyd Co. KY marriage records were thought to have been daughters of Archibald — Charity and Sally. Archibald signed Charity's marriage bond; which suggests that she was related somehow. She married William Branham 1816. Sally Gibson was married 1828 — perhaps to a Henry Pratt; and may also have been related through the elder Ezekiel.

On the subject of the Melungeons – I am familiar with Bonnie Ball through the Appalachian Quarterly where her book is listed in the Book Shelf section – along with Brent Kennedy's and others.

I am aware that most of the Melungeons moved into TN from NC and VA and haven't a clue why our line chose to do otherwise. It may be they WERE in TN briefly as their daughter Elizabeth said (1850 census) said she was born in TN – but then she shaved 15 years off her age, so who knows if she's right about TN. I've had the impression that Archibald and family did not settle permanently in KY until maybe almost 1810 – and they may have traveled back and forth several times, visiting, settling affairs, etc. I did notice in the KY census the surnames Terry, Justice, Sizemore and others which appear also NC, and in some cases a generation back in VA.

As for the old family tale that the Gibsons came from Scotland -- I heard that too; it's a good Scotch name and there were some European Gibsons in VA and NC at the same time. My uncle's genealogical record (which has been my guide) he said that Vashti was supposed to have been "of French heritage." All I can say is that the Melungeon heritage makes more sense, given the facts we have now. I am so glad to see you, Shannon, getting interested. The historical back ground is fascinating. (I presumed that Levin Cole was also Melungeon based on the fact that Vashti was lumped in with the "free persons of color." Here's a list of names now thought to be Melungeon. They warn that many of these names are also European, which makes the whole thing confusing and points out that you just can't jump to conclusion.

Check out http://www.wwclyde.com/gibsonfamily. Go to the message board. I have just posted a transcript to Vashti Cole's husband Archibald Gibson, Sr.'s last will and Testament.

I am curious what your sources were for all those children alledged to be from the union of Vashti Cole and old Arch Sr. I cannot seem to find more than were listed in his will.

I would be glad to share what I have on the lineage of Archibald Gibson, Jr.

Shannon Clyde

Shannon:

I just went in and printed out your deciphered copy of Arch Sr.'s will. I also went into my website and did a checkoff of the children that compare and listed the ones that do not on a piece of paper. As I see it, he refers to his deceased son William's children and his deceased son Ezekeil's children. Now that only leaves two names that I have that are not listed in the will, Charity and Sally. There are two possibilities. (1) they may both have died prior to the writing of the will and had no children or (2) they really are not his children. I am going to let it stand until I hear back from Marian. She was extremely thorough and I am sure she will have her sources. Will let you know what she says on this.

Thanks

Bev

Looking at the names in the will made me check an old reference. Check this out:

For service between 1835 and 1846 from records of the Texas General Land Office as published in BOUNTY AND DONATION LAND GRANTS OF TEXAS 1835-1888, Thomas Lloyd Miller, Univ. of Texas Press, Austin, 1967.

The following Gibson heads came to Texas and were rewarded with land grants:

NAME INDEX TO BOUNTY LAND GRANTS OF TEXAS

Gibson, Absalom
Gibson, Archibald
Gibson, Archibald
Gibson, Jesse
Gibson, John
Gibson, Stephen
Gibson, William

http://www.mindspring.com/~dmaxey/rep_b_eg.htm

I wonder if John and Jesse were brothers to Archibald. Note that there are two entries for an Archibald Gibson. I am researching these two. I believe they are two different folks. Gayland Greaser of the Texas Land Office has sent me this information, but darn it, it's in storage.

There were no Gipsons listed.

Of further interest, is why these guys got grants.
http://www.mindspring.com/~dmaxey/rep_n_g.htm
It was for military service:

Gibson, Absalom Costley, Michael [rev]
Gibson, Alexr. Sweitzer, Alonzo B. [rev]
Gibson, Archibald Allen, James C. [rev]
Gibson, Fenton M. (Q.M.) Fisher, William S. (Col) [1842]
Gibson, Jesse Collins, E.W. [rev]
Gibson, John Frailey, G. Clinton [rev]
Gibson, John (Ensn) Stiles, George [rev]

Gibson, William McClure, John [rev]
Gibson, William Fisher, William S. (Col) [1842]
Gibson, Wm. Sweitzer, Alonzo B. [rev]
Gibson, Wm. Sweitzer, Alonzo B. [rev]

Note that [rev] means Army of Texas - Texas Revolution. The name next to them is their commanders.

Arch, John, Jesse all served during the same time, but in different units.

There were no Gipson names listed, but I did find Absolum Gibson listed as:

Gilson (Gibson), Absalom Costley, Michael [rev]

This happened to Arch's brother in another reference. I was able to prove the typo by going back to the original manuscript.

Sincerely,

Shannon

Thanks so much for sending this. I posted the LWT transcript to the Gibson discussion board. Maybe it will help others.

I am interested in the Melungeon connection. There is a book out called "The Melungeons" by Bonnie Ball, The Overmountain Press of Johnson City, Tennessee. I have not read it fully yet, but did scan certain parts. The back book cover says this about Bonnie Ball's interest in the Melungeons:

"Bonnie Ball's interest in the Melungeons began early in life on her parent's farm in Stickleyvill, Virginia. Her father was well acquainted with the Melungeons from his boyhood, spent near the Newman Ridge Melungeon settlement in Hancock County, Tennessee....Mrs. Ball later taught the offspring of these and other Melungeon families in the local school."

According to her book, Melungeon family heads with the surname Gibson lived in Hawkins County, TN in 1830 as "free persons of color". In Lee County, Virginia in 1860 there are several heads with the surname COAL (could be a derivative of Cole and Cold)

She describes Newman's Ridge in Hancock County, TN as "the original center of dispersal".She also indicates that Gibson (also Gipson) was one of the original family groups. She also calls out Collins, but no Cole (or Coal, or Cold). She mentions that the families also lived on Clinch Mountain, Copper Ridge, and the Cumberland Range in eastern TN in addition to Newman's Ridge. She offers that the whites pushed them up into the mountain ridges.

One of the interesting things that I have experienced in speaking with Gibson researchers who are descended from Archibald Gibson or James Gipson (Arch Senior's sons who went to Texas)is the family origin story. All, to a "T", have recited the story of the Gibson/Gipson family coming from Scotland. I always dig into this to see if this is a modern manifestation or did it originate with the oldsters. In all cases the stories came from Arch, James and their children. No one has any proof, dates of arrival, locations of arrival or anything supporting the family oral history. All of the researchers did point to the emigration from Indiana as the only known location prior to Texas.

As always, it's good to hear from you. As I find new things, I will of course drop you line. Hope you do the same.

Sincerely,
Shannon Clyde
